New Mexico Athletics

Mission

DEVELOPING LOBOS FOR LIFE!

Vision Statement

The University of New Mexico athletics aspires to be the premier athletic program in our Conference and recognized as a national leader in intercollegiate athletics with an international reputation for excellence.

Core Values

Student Athlete Experience - We provide an environment that promotes personal, academic, athletic, and social development. We prepare Lobos for Life!

Integrity - We are honest, respectful, and accountable.

Excellence - We maximize our efforts and talents to ensure success of the Lobos.

Respect - We value the importance of diversity, fairness, goodwill and sportsmanship.

Lobo Pride - We support an atmosphere that embraces school spirit, honors tradition, and develops Lobos for Life!

2024 Media Policies

New Mexico Weekly Press Conference
The New Mexico Weekly Press Conference will take place on Mondays (which is a change from Tuesday) and Coach Bronco Mendenhall will meet with the media for about 30 minutes or so starting at noon. The press conference is on the third floor of the Tow Diehm Football Complex, and after the press conference, there will be lunch courtesy of Levy Restaurants (last year's Taco Bar was insanely good).

Mendenhall Interview Opportunities
During the week, Mendenhall will be available on Mondays at his press conference, and then after games. After home games he will meet the media in the New Mexico Mutual Champions Training Center, and for road games, Coach Mendenhall will be available via ZOOM (links will be sent to participating media).

New Mexico Player Interview Opportunities
All player interviews must be arranged through the UNM athletics communications office. For the season, players are available after practice on Monday and Tuesday. The starting quarterback will meet with the media on Tuesday after practice. Media outlets are asked to request no more than three players each day due to lifting and things of that nature.

Postgame: The UNM locker room is closed. Requested players will be brought to the New Mexico Mutual Champions Training Center and outside the locker room for road games. UNM communications will have coach Mendenhall and two players address the media, and other players that are needed for one-on-ones may be requested. The student-athletes will be available after the press conferences for one-on-one opportunities. For road games, we will have ZOOM press conferences. UNM media that aren't in the stadium, ZOOM links will be sent day of the game.

Wireless in the Press Box
The press box at University Stadium is fully equipped for wireless connections. Access is free, but those wanting access need their own internal or external wireless cards. Phone lines are available. The new wifi installed in 2019 has worked great and the password is located on the name cards in the press box. If you have been to the press box before, it's the same password because I have no clue how to change it, and never remember to ask Charley to change the password, which is why my home internet password never changes. Basically, I'm old and his youngest daughter Angie (a.k.a. Frank's personal tech support) and Charley just can't always rescue him.

www.collegepressbox.com
CollegePressBox.com gives the media one-stop access to updated contact information, media guides, game books, photos, quotes, links and more for each of the league's schools and the Mountain West office. Log-in information will be provided by the MW office to accredited media, or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

Live Stats
The University of New Mexico will utilize StatBroadcast in 2024. Media members for any game can go to www.golobos.com/fbstats

Ticket Information
- online at www.golobos.com/tickets
- by calling 925-5858 or toll-free at 800-955-HOWL.
- Albertson's stores in Albuquerque, Rio Rancho, Los Lunas and Santa Fe
- Lobo Ticket Office inside the Pit at the NW corner of University & Cesar Chavez boulevards from 8:30-5 Monday-Friday
- UNM Bookstore (Bookstore Ticket Office is closed on Mondays) For more information call the New Mexico Athletics Ticket Office at (505) 925-5626 or 1-800-955-HOWL (4695). Call (505) 925-5500 for group tickets and ask to speak to a customer service representative.

On Game Day, the northeast box office at University Stadium opens four hours prior to kickoff, and the Lobo Ticket Office at University Arena opens three hours before game time. The northwest University Stadium box office opens 90 minutes before kickoff.

Lobo Talk
In the fall, host Robert Portnoy and coach Bronco Mendenhall discuss UNM football at Lobo Talk on Tuesday evenings from 6-7 pm at Sandia Resort. Fans can call 866-350-4309 to ask coach Mendenhall a question.

Game Credentials
Regular UNM media will receive game credentials prior to the start of the season. Season credentials doubles as a parking pass for the Baseball East lot across from the stadium.

Visiting team media should request single-game credentials through their team's media relations office. Media passes work as parking passes for the Baseball South lots.

Media members not associated directly with a team can email requests via our media request link, which is located near the top of the football page on GoLobos.com under "Credential Request Form". It's hard to miss (yet it happens...)

For media members picking up credentials at will call without parking passes, it is located in the Northeast corner of the stadium by Gate 7 or 8. With parking passes credentials will be located at the University Drive entrance to the Baseball South lot with the parking attendant. This should allow you to get your credential without having to wait in line or deal with parking on the north side of the stadium.

Parking
Media parking is located across and just south of the stadium off University Drive. Media members can park in the Baseball East lot which is located next to University Drive. The Baseball East lot entrance is off University Drive south directly across from the Stadium West lot entrance, and it's the driveway between Santa Ana Star Field and the Davalos Practice Center.

Visiting Radio
The visiting radio booth is located on the fourth level of the main press box, next to the main media area.

The University of New Mexico

Founded in 1889 as New Mexico's flagship institution, The University of New Mexico now occupies nearly 800 acres near old Route 66 in the heart of Albuquerque, a metropolitan area of more than 500,000 people. From the magnificent mesas to the west, past the banks of the historic Rio Grande to the Sandia Mountains to the east, Albuquerque is a blend of culture and cuisine, styles and stories, people, pursuits and panoramas.

Offering a distinctive campus environment with a Pueblo Revival architectural theme, the campus buildings echo nearby Pueblo Indian villages. The nationally recognized campus arboretum and the popular duck pond offer an outstanding botanical experience in the midst of one of New Mexico's great public open spaces.

The People

As a Hispanic-Serving Institution, the University represents a cross-section of cultures and backgrounds. In fall of 2023, 22,852 students, attended main campus with another 6,000+ students at branch campuses and education centers.

UNM boasts an outstanding faculty that includes a Nobel Laureate, two MacArthur Fellows, 35 Fulbright scholars and several members of national academies. Faculty publish in many professional journals including Scientific American and The New England Journal of Medicine and Nature. UNM professors have been quoted in Newsweek, the Los Angeles Times, Business Week, People Magazine, Parade Magazine, U.S. News and World Report, and The New Yorker, among others. They have shared their expertise on CNN, the Today Show, Good Morning America, Nova National Geographic and other news shows.

UNM employs more than 20,000 people statewide, including employees of University Hospital. It has more than 159,000 active alumni, with Lobos in every state and more than 1,400 alumni outside the U.S. More than half of UNM's alumni choose to remain in New Mexico.

The Places

The University has branch campuses in Gallup, Los Alamos, Taos and Valencia County, as well as the extension UNM Health Sciences Rio Rancho Campus. UNM offers bachelor and graduate degree completion programs throughout the state via Extended Learning and has education centers located at the four branch campus locations as well as in Santa Fe, Farmington, and at Kirtland Air Force Base. UNM's libraries, museums, galleries and performance spaces are a rich cultural resources for the state. Home to the Lobos and contenders in the Mountain West, UNM athletics draw fans from all over. University Arena or "The Pit" is one of college basketball's most famous and recognizable buildings. In fact, The Pit was ranked 5th by the Travel Channel as one of the best college basketball venues.

The Programs

UNM is a place where cutting-edge research and creative endeavors flourish. UNM research injects millions of dollars into New Mexico's economy, funds new advancements in healthcare, and augments teaching – giving students valuable hands-on training in state-of-the art laboratories.

The Health Sciences Center is the state's largest integrated health care treatment, research and education organization. U.S. News and World Report's 2018 edition of "America's Best Graduate Schools" ranks the UNM School of Medicine 20th in primary care and 72nd in research. Additionally, in health disciplines, UNM's nursing-midwifery program is ranked seventh. UNM School of Law is ranked 88th, while ranking 14th in clinical training. UNM College of Fine Arts is ranked 48th, with its photography program ranked fifth in the nation. The engineering program is ranked 83rd nationally, with electrical engineering coming in at 75th, and Chemical Engineering ranking at 72nd.

UNM is one of only a dozen Hispanic-Serving Institution in the U.S. that are also classified by the Carnegie Commission on Higher Education as a R1: Doctoral Universities with very high research activity.

Among the University's outstanding research units are the Center for Advanced Research Computing, Cancer Center, New Mexico Engineering Research Institute, Center for High Technology Materials, Design Planning Assistance Center, Innovation Academy and the Mind Research Network.

UNM Traditions-The Lobo Nickname

A number of legends have arisen over the years as to how The University of New Mexico got "Lobo" as its official nickname. When the university began playing football in 1892, the team was simply referred to as "The University Boys" or "Varsities" to distinguish themselves from the prep school kids.

The student body, at least as early as 1917, began to seriously explore the possibilities for both a mascot and a new name for the student newspaper, which was then called simply the "U.N.M. Weekly." Several names for the paper were suggested, including The Rattler, the Sand Devil, the Ki-yo-te and the Cherry and Silver. However, there was no single name that struck a responsive chord among the students and when school opened in the Fall of 1920 the U.N.M. Weekly was still there.

On Sept. 22, 1920, sophomore George S. Bryan, editor of the U.N.M. Weekly and football team student manager, was present at a Student Council meeting for the purpose of suggesting that the University teams be given a mascot name as at that time many universities had them. Bryan suggested Lobo, the Spanish word for wolf, as the nickname. The name was enthusiastically received. The Oct. 1 issue of the student paper said, "The Lobo is respected for his cunning, feared for his prowess, and is the leader of the pack. It is the ideal name for the Varsity boys who go forth to battle for the glory of the school. All together now; fifteen rahs for the LOBOS."

The University of New Mexico

From that beginning, the Lobo nickname has remained with The University of New Mexico for 100 years.

UNM Traditions - The Lobo Mascot

After "Lobo" was adopted as the school's nickname in 1920, it was not long thereafter that a real Lobo became the mascot.

Bruno Dieckmann, class of 1902, and by 1920 a successful Albuquerque insurance and real estate agent, acquired the first Lobo for the University at his own expense. At the time he was treasurer of the Athletic Association and "one of the most admired men in town."

Elsie Ruth Chant, class of 1923, recalled, "All of the girls on campus wanted to be seen with him. He was an accomplished concert violinist as well as being a successful businessman, and he was rich. He drove a Stutz Bearcat convertible around town and all of the girls would compete to get rides with him. Sometimes he had five or six girls in the car, and when he finally got married, he left broken hearts all over campus. Anyway, he either caught it himself or he paid to have a wolf captured in the Mount Taylor area. The wolf was brought into the school and a student by the name of Bowman would take it on a leash to the football practice area."

Apparently, a government trapper named Jim Young caught a wolf pup on the Floyd Lee Ranch near Mount Taylor in western part of the state. The cub became the responsibility of the cheerleaders and it appeared in harness at every football game. However, in the late 20s, a child teased the wolf and the child was bitten at one of the games. UNM officials were forced to dispose of the wolf, as one historian put it, "for fear other ill-bred brats might become tempted to play with the wolf and bring a damage suit."

A live wolf has really never been a part of the athletics scene since. In the early 1960s a human mascot named "Lobo Louie" was created. A second mascot, "Lobo Lucy" was created in the early 1980s. Both are now members of the school's cheerleading squad.

UNM Traditions - Cherry and Silver

The most common origin of New Mexico's school colors dates back over 100 years. Apparently, the school colors in the early 1890s were black and gold. Ms. Harriet Jenness, a faculty member who taught drawing, delsarte (drama), penmanship and music, suggested a change in school colors because black and gold did not give a true feeling of New Mexico. She suggested the crimson evening glow of the majestic Sandia mountains to the east. The silver came from when students and faculty took picnics in the Sandias and noted the Rio Grande looked like a silver ribbon winding through the valley below. Her ideas were enthusiastically adopted by the faculty and staff. The crimson was later changed to cherry, the color of a Sandia sunset. Miss Jenness died in 1895, two years before the colors were adopted as "official." From 1973-79, turquoise was integrated into the official school colors, at least, for the athletics teams. The football team wore turquoise jerseys at home during those years. Cherry and silver returned as the predominant colors in 1980.

UNM Traditions - The Alma Mater

The Alma Mater (in Latin means "Nourishing" or "Dear Mother") was a source of contention at UNM in 1947. The original Alma Mater was set to the tune of "Annie Lyle," which was an unpopular tune with the student body for a long period of time. The student body voted in a general election to change the Alma Mater and found Glee Club Director Craig Summers to oblige. Actually Mr. Summers and his father wrote the present Alma Mater three years before and called it "The New Mexico Hymn."

New Mexico, New Mexico
We sing to honor thee.
This golden haze of college days
Will live in memory.
This praise we sing will ever ring
With truth and loyalty New Mexico, your fame we know
Will last eternally.

UNM Traditions - The Fight Song

The UNM fight Song was written in 1930. The music to the Fight Song was written by Dean Lena Clauve, who served the University for 32 years as a professor of music education and as the Dean of Women. Dr. George St. Clair, professor in the English Department, wrote the lyrics.

Hail to thee, New Mexico,
Thy loyal sons are we. Marching down the field we go,
Fighting for thee.
RAH! RAH! RAH!
Now we pledge our faith to thee,
Never shall we fail.
Fighting ever, yielding never.
HAIL! HAIL! HAIL!

Center for Student-Athlete Success

Mission
The Lobo Center for Student-Athlete Success, in conjunction with the University of New Mexico, provides support services for prospective, current, as well as former student-athletes in an effort to increase academic and personal success. Student athletes are encouraged to develop personal responsibility, intelligent decision making, and leadership skills through the provision of educational experiences both inside and outside of the classroom. The Lobo Center also celebrates the academic and civic achievements by our student-athletes.

Services Offered
Study Hall
The study halls are sport specific and designed to accommodate each athletic team in a structured and professional academic setting. The atmosphere is intended to foster an environment that is conducive to learning and group facilitation.

Each team study hall is staffed and monitored by at least one study hall monitor. The study hall monitors are proficient in a myriad of subjects and provide assistance to the student-athletes when needed

Athletic Computer Labs
The athletic computer lab is an academic aid to student-athletes, and its primary purpose is to facilitate the scholastic pursuits of student athletes at the University of New Mexico.

Laptop Computers
Laptop computers are available to all student-athletes on a first come, first serve basis. The laptops are for student-athletes to use when they are on the road traveling for competition.

Learning Strategist
The Center also has an in-house Learning Strategist devoted to providing support to student-athletes who have been diagnosed with a learning disability as well as those who need additional instruction in specific content areas and general study skills. The Learning Strategist also provides workshops that address study skills and time management. Individual appointments can be made as needed as well as class specific reviews can be coordinated.

Books on Loan
A benefit of being a student-athlete on scholarship is an in-house bookroom where student-athletes can get their textbooks for their classes. Our bookroom administrator can look up student's class schedules to determine the necessary textbooks, which eliminates the time-consuming tasks of going to the bookstore to research the books for each class and then standing in long lines to purchase them!

Academic Monitoring
Student-athlete progress is monitored by the Student Support Staff, housed in the Lobo Center. Three times a semester instructors will provide feedback on student-athletes academic progress. Progress forms are sent at the 4th, 8th, and 12th week during the academic semester. The information provided in these forms are forwarded to coaches and used to help student-athletes with their academic progression.

Academic Advisement
Each student-athlete at UNM is required to meet with their athletic academic advisor at least once a semester for class registration advisement. Once a major is declared, the student-athlete is required to meet their assigned major advisor at least once per semester and then return a completed pre-enrollment form to their assigned athletic advisor. An athletic academic advisor is always available to answer any and all questions.

University 101
University 101 is a three (3) credit hour course that is designed to help freshmen student-athletes successfully transition into life and learning at the university. This course provides freshman student-athletes with a special orientation to the university community, the UNM athletics program, and the NCAA rules and regulations. Although the course does not fulfill core curriculum requirements, it is applicable towards elective credit. Furthermore, it is required for all incoming freshmen scholarship student-athletes.

University Stadium

Entering its 64th season, University Stadium is the home of the New Mexico Lobos. The stadium complex has seen plenty of upgrades over previous seasons, including a new athletic performance center in the Tow Diehm Football Building, the largest scoreboard and video board in the Mountain West, and a new synthetic playing surface installed in 2021. The latest addition is the New Mexico Mutual Champions Training Center, which opened in 2023 and is located inside the south end of the stadium.

The stadium opened its gates Sept. 17, 1960, when UNM hosted the National University of Mexico. The Lobos thumped their foreign visitors, 77-6, UNM's biggest margin of victory at University Stadium.

Prior to 1960, UNM played its home games at Zimmerman Field (1938-59) and University Field (1892-1937), where Ortega Hall, the Humanities building and Woodward Hall presently stand.

DIRECTIONS

Located on the southeast corner of Avenida Cesar Chavez and University Boulevard, University Stadium can be easily accessed by exiting off I-25, just south of the Big-I, at Avenida Cesar Chavez. Head east on Avenida Cesar Chavez. After crossing University Boulevard, University Stadium is located on the right.

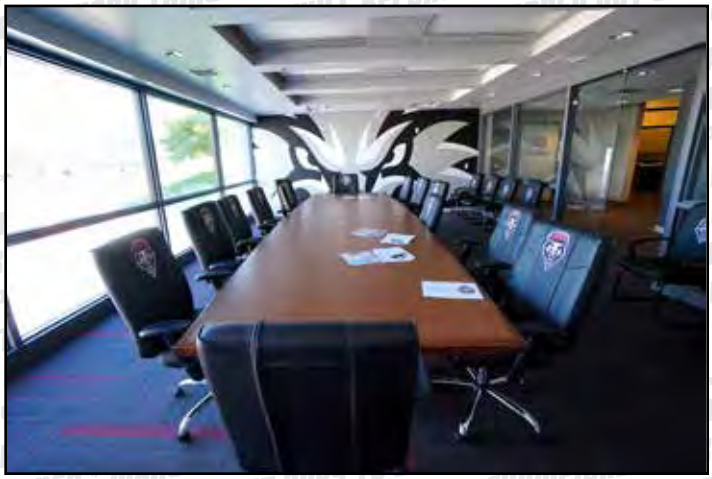
L.F. "Tow" Diehm Football Facility

Lobo Football is housed in the L.F. "Tow" Diehm Football Facility, a large all-emcompassing building in the south end of University Stadium. Named for former trainer Tow Diehm and completed in 1995, the facility houses UNM's locker room, athletic performance center, training room and medical areas, team offices and meeting rooms, and a hospitality area. On game days, the third floor hospitality area serves as a premium seating area on the U.S. Bank Club Level, with indoor and outdoor seating, climate control, carving stations and a full bar.

The facility is named in honor of Tow Diehm, who did as much for Lobo athletics as anyone. He came to UNM in 1957 to serve as the school's athletics trainer, a position he would hold for 31 years. It was during that time that Diehm treated and befriended thousands of student-athletes. In 1988, he was elevated to associate athletics director where he began lobbying efforts with the state legislature to help fund a desperately needed athletics training facility.

His endless to trips to Santa Fe resulted in the construction of the magnificent facility that now bears his name. Diehm was also instrumental in prompting legislators to pass a tuition waiver bill for out-of-state student-athletes, which provides a huge savings to all of the state's four-year institutions. Although he officially semi-retired in 1992, Diehm continued to work the legislature on behalf of UNM until his death in 1998



New Mexico Mutual Champions Training Center

The New Mexico Mutual Champions Training Center broke ground in the spring of 2022 and opened in April of 2023. The 11,312-square foot facility (9,774 on the weight training floor and 1,538 on the cardio mezzanine) allows for all Lobo athletic teams to have a new space in which to continue athletic performance training.

The new facility is located in the South End Zone of University Stadium, and its construction was easy to document as its progress was very visible during the 2022 football season on television during games broadcast on CBS Sports Network and FS1 and FS2.

"I'm grateful for our continued partnership with New Mexico Mutual," said Vice President/Director of Athletics Eddie Nuñez. "The investment into our student-athletes by a local company will allow for the very best for all our student-athletes. As we continue to strive for championships, both in the Mountain West and nationally, the New Mexico Mutual Champions Training Center will be a key piece towards realizing those goals."

Nuñez added, "I want to sincerely thank New Mexico Mutual President & CEO Kellie Mixon for her strong and continued support of Lobo Athletics, as well as Norm Becker, former CEO when this project was taking root."

With its emphasis on physical fitness, the NMMCTC aligns with New Mexico Mutual's commitment to the health and well-being of all New Mexicans, as well as its focus on New Mexico's workforce. The grand opening was marked by a ribbon-cutting ceremony and tours of the new space, which more than doubles UNM's current athletic performance space. The NMMCTC houses all new athletic performance equipment, from free weights and stations to a full cardio area.

While the facility is housed in the Football End Zone Club, the NMMCTC is large enough that all Lobo teams will be utilizing the facility, including multiple teams at the same time. The facility will also allow UNM's medical and athletic training staff to utilize the latest technology in both injury prevention and injury rehabilitation.

The New Mexico Mutual Champions Training Center is UNM's first new facility since the construction of the McKinnon Family Tennis Stadium, which opened in time for the 2014-15 tennis season and the R.D. and Joan Dale Hubbard Baseball Clubhouse, which opened in 2016. The last update to UNM's athletic performance facilities occurred in August of 2014 when UNM's weight room inside of the Tow Diehm Football Complex was renovated.

Mark Paulsen Athletic Performance Center

The 2014 season saw the debut of perhaps one of the most important pieces in the facility puzzle for the University of New Mexico football team. The new Athletic Performance Center for Football opened for business in August of 2014, giving the Lobo football team a state of the art athletic performance and training center for year-round dedicated use.

The facility was renamed on September 18, 2023 as the Mark Paulsen Strength Center after the former Lobo strength coach who is widely credited for helping build the toughness of the Lobo football teams of the late 1990s and 2000s, programs that head coach Bronco Mendenhall was a part of as the defensive coordinator.

The New Mexico football team never had the chance to see the center being constructed, as it was locked away from the players and prying eyes. The team got to see the facility for the first time after the completion of fall camp in Ruidoso, and the team was stunned at what they saw. Along with brand new flooring and branding with the Lobo shield everywhere, racks and racks of dumbbells, machines, and every other piece of strength equipment you can imagine was there at their disposal (including a 40-yard turf sprinting area). Every single thing brand new, gleaming and sparkling under all-new lighting as well.

"There was so much energy going through my body as soon as I walked through the door," said then-captain LaMar Bratton, one of the first players through the door to the new facility. "When I came here as a freshman, I could never imagine a weight room like it is now." The Athletic Performance Center reveal video made the national rounds on sites like SI.com and FootballScoop.com, and it remained the most viewed UNM football video for the program for four years.

The new Athletic Performance Center for Football is one of many major facility upgrade for the program, joining the FieldTurf installation in 2021, the Mountain West's largest scoreboard at the time in 2013 and a state-of-the-art sound system for the stadium in 2015 and refurbishing the office space, including all meeting rooms, in Tow Diehm in 2017. The 2018 season saw a refurbished locker room, the first locker room renovation in over 30 years.

With a host of former players and coaches in attendance, the revamped athletic performance center was officially renamed the Mark Paulsen Strength Center on Friday afternoon, a fitting tribute for a strength coach who, no matter the program, built machines.

And make no mistake, those machines won a lot of games, across a lot of sports.

Paulsen, who came to UNM with Mike Shepard and hit his stride under Dennis Franchoine, helped led the strength and conditioning program for a Lobo Football team that hit its peak under Rocky Long in the 2000s. Those teams were known for their toughness, and brute strength, and the man behind that was Mark Paulsen, who got every student-athlete, regardless of sport, regardless of gender, to maximize their potential.

"This is such a fitting honor for Mark," said V.P./Director of Athletics Eddie Nuñez. "For what he did for this institution, for what he did for (his student-athletes), because of what it means to be a Lobo."

Paulsen, who was flanked by not just friends but plenty of family, also was the strength coach for the Lobo basketball program when the team hit it's stride in the early 2010s, winning several conference titles, including a 30-5 season and a Top 10 national ranking in 2010.

Bronco Mendenhall
Head Coach

Bronco Mendenhall

Oregon State, 1987
American Fork, Utah

Bronco Mendenhall, a 17-year veteran head coach who has twice turned around struggling programs, joined the Lobo Family on Dec. 6, 2023 when he was named the 33rd head football coach at The University of New Mexico. The announcement was made by Vice President/Director of Athletics Eddie Nuñez. Mendenhall is no stranger to Albuquerque or The University of New Mexico, having served as defensive coordinator and associate head coach for the Lobos under Rocky Long from 1998-2002.

Mendenhall, 57, served as the head coach at former Mountain West rival BYU for 11 years and at Virginia for six, both times inheriting programs that were coming off a string of losing seasons and turning both into consistent winners.

After leaving UNM in 2002, Mendenhall spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator for BYU under Gary Crowton before being elevated to the head coaching position in 2005. In his first season at the helm of the Cougars, Mendenhall led BYU to a 6-6 record, returning BYU to a bowl game for the first time since 2001, losing 35-28 in the Las Vegas Bowl to California.

Mendenhall enamored himself to the Cougar fan base in that first season by returning the traditional "Y" to the team's helmets and more traditional uniforms. That opening season with BYU in 2005 would be his only non-winning season, as the Cougars reeled off double-digit wins four consecutive years from 2006-09, winning a pair of Mountain West titles as BYU would play in bowl games in all 11 of his seasons in Provo.

In 2006 and 2007, BYU went 11-2 each season and a perfect 8-0 in the Mountain West, finishing the 2006 season ranked No. 15 in the final AP Poll and No. 16 in the final Coaches Poll. In 2007, BYU finished 14th in both polls. The 2006 squad won its final 10 games including a 33-31 win over rival Utah to end a four-year winning streak for the Utes, a game in which BYU threw an 11-yard touchdown pass with no time left. Mendenhall was named Mountain West Coach of the Year as well as the Region 5 Coach of the Year by the AFCA.

In 2007, BYU again finished the season off with 10 consecutive wins, and by the time of season's end, it was the nation's longest winning streak. The Cougars again won the Las Vegas Bowl and this time they were able to exact some revenge with a 17-16 win over UCLA after the Bruins won the regular season matchup 27-17. The BYU defense finished 10th nationally, and overall BYU allowed 16 or fewer points in eight of the team's 13 games.

The 2008 Cougars again won double-digit games, going 10-3, and Mendenhall became the first Cougar coach to ever go unbeaten at home over three consecutive seasons. BYU opened the season 6-0 to run its winning streak to 16 straight, moving as high as No. 7 in the polls after a 21-3 win over New Mexico in Provo. BYU again played in the Las Vegas Bowl, and three Cougars earned Academic All-America honors, a program first.

The following season in 2009, BYU went 11-2, going 7-1 in the Mountain West and 3-1 against nationally-ranked foes. Included in that was a season-opening 14-13 neutral site win over No. 3 Oklahoma State in Arlington, Texas. Once again the Cougars excelled on the field and in the classroom. Two more Cougars earned Academic All-America honors while quarterback Max Hall threw for 3,560 yards. Running back Harvey Unga rushed for 1,087 yards and tight end Dennis Pitta earned All-America honors as he broke the NCAA record for most career receiving yards by a tight end.

In 2010, Mendenhall took over as defensive coordinator after a 2-5 start and BYU won five of its final six games. That season culminated in a 52-24 thrashing of UTEP in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl, making Mendenhall a perfect 4-0 inside University Stadium.

Mendenhall led the Cougars into the uncharted territory of football independence from 2011-15, starting with another double-digit win season in 2011

as BYU went 10-3, winning a third-straight bowl game. The Cougars finished 22nd nationally in points allowed per game at 20.4, and BYU won nine of its last 10 including a come-from-behind win over Tulsa 27-24 in the Armed Forces Bowl. The Cougars finished the season ranked No. 25 in the Coaches Poll, giving BYU five seasons under Mendenhall in the final rankings.

The Cougars reeled off three straight 8-5 seasons under challenging schedules that saw BYU face off, and beat, the likes of No. 15 Texas (40-21 and 41-7), Boise State (37-20), Georgia Tech (38-20 and 41-17), Cal (42-35) and Washington State (30-6). BYU made it 10 straight seasons of bowl games as BYU earned bids to the Poinsettia Bowl in 2012, beating former conference foe San Diego State 23-6. BYU also faced off with Washington in the 2013 Fight Hunger Bowl and with Memphis in the 2014 Miami Beach Bowl.

In 2015, his final season with the Cougars, Mendenhall led BYU to a 9-3 record that included wins over No. 20 Boise State 35-24 and a season- opening win at Nebraska 33-28. The Cougars also won seven of their final eight games to finish off the regular season before facing Utah in the Royal Purple Las Vegas Bowl.

After stepping down from BYU, Mendenhall took over the Virginia Cavaliers, who were suffering through four straight losing seasons. It took Mendenhall two seasons to get the Cavs back to a bowl game for the first time in six years as his 2017 team went 6-6 in the regular season, earning an invitation to the Military Bowl Presented by Northrop Grumman. He also continued to win games against ranked opponents, beating Boise State 42-23 in Boise, and he continued to win rivalry games, defeating North Carolina in "The South's Oldest Rivalry" for the first time in eight years.

His next two seasons saw Virginia go 8-5 in 2018 and 9-5 in 2019. The 2018 squad again won the "South's Oldest Rivalry" and Virginia picked up another ranked win, beating No. 16 Miami 16-13. Virginia was invited to the Belk Bowl, where Mendenhall's Cavs shut out South Carolina of the SEC 28-0.

In 2019, Virginia went 9-3 and won the ACC's Coastal Division with a 6-2 mark, playing Clemson for the ACC title. The Cavs went unbeaten at home and defeated Virginia Tech for the first time in 15 years, earning a New Year's Six Bowl appearance against Florida in the Capital One Orange Bowl. The Cavs finished the year ranked No. 25 in the final Coaches Poll, and defense was again a calling card as the Cavs had three players record double-digit TFLs.

Mendenhall navigated Virginia to a 5-5 mark over the abbreviated 2020 COVID season, passing up a bowl opportunity. The squad did pick up another ranked win with Virginia winning 44-41 over No. 13 North Carolina. In 2021, the Cavs went 6-6, finishing third nationally in total offense and 24th in scoring offense before Mendenhall stepped away from coaching. It marked the 16th time in 17 seasons as a head coach that his team was bowl eligible.

The Alpine, Utah native got his start in the coaching world at Oregon State as a graduate assistant after finishing a two-year playing career there as a defensive back in 1986 and 1987. His two years with Oregon State saw Mendenhall assist with the defensive line. He moved to the junior college ranks with the highly successful Snow College program, serving as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach in 1991 and 1992. He then spent two years at Northern Arizona (one as co-defensive coordinator) before returning to Oregon State in 1995 as a defensive line coach. In 1996, he served as the Beavers' defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach.

After a season at Louisiana Tech in 1997, he came to Albuquerque to serve as Rocky Long's first defensive coordinator, coaching five seasons from 1998-2002. UNM's defense excelled under Mendenhall, earning a quick reputation as a hard-nosed, hard-hitting unit led by safety Brian Urlacher, whom Mendenhall served as position coach for two seasons.

In his first seasons as defensive coordinator, the Lobos had six players earn first team All-Mountain West honors and Brandon Ratcliff was co- Mountain

West Freshman of the Year. Under Mendenhall, Urlacher was twice an All-American and Nick Speegle earned Freshman All-America honors as well.

Over his time with UNM, the Lobos improved from just three wins in 1998 to seven wins and an invitation to the Las Vegas Bowl in 2002. In the Lobos' 27-13 loss against UCLA in the Las Vegas Bowl, the Mendenhall-led defense held the Bruins to a season-low 167 yards.

Under Mendenhall, the Lobos led the Mountain West in rushing defense for three straight seasons. In 2001, New Mexico gave up just 87.4 yards per game over the season. In his final season in Albuquerque, Mendenhall led the Lobos to a top ranking against league opponents in total defense, allowing just 316.4 yards per game. The Lobos also led the MWC in sacks in the 2000 and 2002 seasons, totaling 46 and 38, respectively.

Mendenhall and his wife, Holly, have three sons, Raeder, Breaker and Cutter.

Jason Beck
Off. Coord./QBs

BYU, 2006
Oknard, Calif.

Jason Beck joined the Lobo Football program in February of 2024, and he serves as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for UNM. He comes to New Mexico after a two-year stint at Syracuse.

Over his 10 seasons as a quarterbacks coach at the FBS level, Beck's protégées have averaged 3,300 passing yards and 509 rushing yards, for an average of 3,809 yards of total offense per season. Beck has a proven track record of developing quarterback talent for the next level. Three of his prior quarterbacks were on active NFL rosters in 2023.

The 2024 season will be his 11th working with Mendenhall.

PREVIOUS COACHING STOPS

SYRACUSE (2022-23): Beck served two seasons with the Orange as quarterbacks coach, and in 2023 he also served as offensive coordinator. In his lone season as the program's OC, Beck's unit creatively navigated injuries to crucial areas, picking up a pair of late-season victories to secure a second-straight bowl berth by utilizing a converted tight end to throw the majority of passes and a run-focused attack to reach the postseason.

After a 4-0 start that saw QB Garrett Shrader get added to the Davey O'Brien Watch List, injuries hampered the passing attack down the stretch, forcing a shift in philosophy. Running back LeQuint Allen crossed the 1,000-yard threshold, marking the third-straight season a Syracuse back had gone past quadruple digits.

The multi-look offense set the program's single-game record for total offense (677 yards) in the season opener and scored nine touchdowns. Ten weeks later, his offense mustered the most yards on the ground by an Orange squad since 1996 (392 yards).

Beck coached the quarterbacks in 2022 and oversaw Syracuse's passing efficiency rating upgrade from 108th in the FBS in 2021, to 45th nationally and fourth in the ACC in one season. The Orange also improved to eighth in the ACC in total offense (from 10th), seventh in passing offense (from 14th), second in red zone offense (from 13th), and seventh in scoring offense (from 10th) in his first season with the Orange.

VIRGINIA (2016-21): Beck spent six seasons with the Virginia Cavaliers, serving as quarterbacks coach for all six. There, his charges had tremendous success.

At Virginia, Beck's quarterback Bryce Perkins graduated as the program's career record holder at the time for total offense (7,910) after playing only two seasons in Charlottesville (2018-19). Under Beck, Perkins also claimed the top two spots in the Cavalier record book for single-season and single-game total offense, until both were surpassed by Brennan Armstrong in 2021. Perkins' total offense number (4,307) in 2019 ranked No. 6 nationally and No. 1 in the ACC. Perkins also set the single-season passing record at UVA with 3,538 passing yards in 2019, which ranked No. 16 in the nation and No. 3 in the ACC. Perkins is currently on the LA Rams roster.

In 2021, Beck's student Armstrong helped UVA rank second in the nation in passing offense. The 2021 Cavaliers' offense ranked near the top of the FBS in several different national statistics, including passing offense (2nd/392.6), total offense (3rd/515.8), first downs (11th/318), 3rd down conversions (15th/.459) and scoring offense (22nd/34.6).

Beck also coached eventual NFL quarterback Kurt Benkert, who has spent time with the Atlanta Falcons, Green Bay Packers, and San Francisco 49ers. Benkert finished a two-year career at Virginia with 5,759 passing yards and 46 career touchdowns.

Virginia has only had three quarterbacks throw for 20+ touchdowns in multiple seasons. All six of those campaigns coincided with Beck's tenure at Virginia with Armstrong (2020-21), Perkins (2018-19), and Benkert (2016-17) accomplishing the feat. At Virginia, he helped UVA become bowl eligible in his last five seasons there, including an ACC Coastal Division Championship in 2019 and a trip to the Orange Bowl.

BYU (2013-15): Beck spent three seasons at his alma mater, coaching quarterbacks at BYU from 2013-15 where he tutored current New Orleans Saints all-everything tight end/quarterback/receiver Taysom Hill. In 2015, after Hill suffered a season-ending injury, Beck coached freshman Tanner Magnum to be the nation's only freshman quarterback to throw for more than 3,000 yards and post a completion percentage north of 60 percent. That came on the heels of another year where Hill's season was cut short in 2014. Beck helped BYU successfully navigate the final seven games of the regular season without the star

QB. Hill and Christian Stewart combined for 3,623 yards and 32 touchdowns, including 25 TDs by Stewart. As a sophomore quarterback in 2013, Hill passed for 2,938 yards and 19 TDs, while also rushing for 1,344 yards and 10 TDs under Beck's tutelage.

SIMON FRASER (2012): Beck spent the 2012 season as the offensive coordinator at Simon Fraser, the only Division II school located in Canada. Beck turned an offense that ranked last in the Great Northwest Athletic Conference in total offense, passing offense, and scoring offense in 2011 into the league's No. 1-rated attack in all three categories during the program's first year as a full NCAA Division II member in 2012.

WEBER STATE (2009-11): Beck served as quarterbacks coach at Weber State from 2009-2011. Under his guidance, quarterback Cameron Higgins set school records for most career passing yards (12,274), most career touchdowns passes (98), most career total touchdowns (105), most career pass completions (935), and career passing efficiency rating (144.5). Higgins completed his career as one of the most prolific players in Big Sky Conference history.

LSU (2008): Beck spent the 2008 season on Les Miles' staff at LSU as an offensive intern.

BYU (2007): Beck spent the 2007 season as an offensive intern on Bronco Mendenhall's staff at BYU.

PLAYING CAREER: BYU (2004-06), College of the Canyons (2003), Ventura College (2002): As a player, Beck spent three seasons at BYU after one-year stops at College of the Canyons and Ventura College as a quarterback. He spent much of his time at BYU as a backup, but totaled 553 yards through the air in his career, including 305 yards on 20-of-28 passing in his lone start, a 38-0 victory over Utah State his senior season. At College of the Canyons, he led the Cougars to an 11-1 record and No. 4 ranking nationally among junior colleges.

Beck earned bachelor's and master's degrees in communications from BYU in 2006 and 2011. He is married to former BYU soccer standout Jaime Rendich, and they have a daughter, Peyton, and twin sons, Cameron and Jackson.

Nick Howell
Def. Coord.

Ogden, Utah
Weber State, 2005

Nick Howell joined the Lobo Football program in January of 2024, and he serves as defensive coordinator for the program. He comes to UNM from a two-year stint as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Vanderbilt.

The 2024 season will be Howell's 12th consecutive season as an FBS defensive coordinator. Over his previous stints, Howell has served as a defensive coordinator in the Mountain West, the ACC, and the SEC.

The 2024 season will be his 16th working with Mendenhall.

PREVIOUS COACHING STOPS

VANDERBILT (2022-23): Howell spent the previous two seasons as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Vanderbilt, where he weekly schemed defenses in arguably the nation's toughest conference.

In 2023, the Commodores led the SEC with 12 interceptions and were fourth in the SEC in defensive touchdowns. Linebacker Langston Patterson and anchor CJ Taylor both finished among the league's leaders in tackles, ranking 11th and 21st, respectively. Taylor and De'Rickey Wright were among 31 players in the SEC with multiple interceptions on the year.

His debut Commodore defense capitalized on opportunities, scoring four defensive touchdowns on the season. That total led the SEC and ranked 12th nationally. It was a marked improvement after a 2021 campaign that saw Vandy fail to record a defensive score.

Linebacker Anfernee Orji led the defensive side of the ball, recording an SEC-best 8.93 tackles per game. With 108 total tackles, Orji became the first Vanderbilt player to lead the team in tackles for three consecutive seasons since 2003-05. Fellow senior Jaylen Mahoney tied the Vanderbilt single-game record with 5.0 tackles for loss against Missouri, also the most by a player in the SEC on the season.

The 2022 season also saw the continued emergence of Wright and Taylor. Wright moved to safety and recorded two interceptions against No. 9 Ole Miss, making him the first Vandy player with two picks in a game since 2019. Taylor notched two of Vanderbilt's defensive touchdowns on the year. All told, the Commodores recorded at least one takeaway in 10 of 12 games.

VIRGINIA (2016-21): Howell served as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach for Virginia from 2016 to 2021 where he helped lead Virginia to the 2019 Atlantic Coast Conference Championship Game and an Orange Bowl berth. Jordan Mack, Charles Snowden, Juan Thornhill, and Bryce Hall are among the notables who have played under Howell. His 2018 Virginia defense was among the top 20 nationally in team passing efficiency, passing yards allowed, team defense, and scoring defense.

The 2021 season saw the Cavaliers earn a Fenway Bowl berth (canceled due to COVID-19) while Howell's defense stepped up when it mattered most. Virginia finished third in the ACC and 28th nationally in red zone defense. The unit was paced by Jackson, who led the ACC with 9.8 tackles per game, while Joey Blount was seventh in the conference with 7.9 tackles per contest. Blount and Anthony Johnson each recorded three interceptions on the year. While navigating the 2020 season and the COVID-19 pandemic, Snowden led ACC linebackers with .75 sacks per game and ranked 13th among the nation's linebackers with six sacks.

In 2019, Virginia had a season to remember. The Cavaliers set a program record with 43 sacks en route to the ACC Championship game and Orange Bowl. Mack led all ACC linebackers with 7.5 sacks, while 27 of UVA's 46 sacks were recorded by linebackers. The highlight of the season came as Virginia recorded six sacks in a win over rival Virginia Tech to clinch the ACC Coastal division title. The defense also led the ACC with three defensive touchdowns.

In 2018, Virginia finished among the nation's top 20 in opponent passing efficiency (12th), passing yards allowed (16th), team defense (20th) and scoring defense (20th). The season culminated in a 28-0 victory over South Carolina in the Belk Bowl, marking the first time a non-SEC team recorded a shutout of an SEC team since 1975. Hall led the nation with 22 breakups and 24 passes defended, earning All- America honors from five outlets. Thornhill posted the best opponent passer rating when in coverage among ACC safeties and joined Hall in earning first team All-ACC accolades.

His 2017 defense included a secondary which ranked seventh in the nation and second in the ACC against the pass, led by Quin Blanding, Brenton Nelson, and Thornhill. Blanding capped the season as UVA's all-time leading tackler with 495 career tackles, also the most ever by an ACC defensive back.

BYU (2007-15): Howell spent nine seasons in a variety of positions at BYU, starting as a defensive intern before eventually moving up to defensive coordinator.

In 2015, Howell's Cougar defense ranked sixth nationally in sacks per game, while his 2014 unit was 20th nationally in rushing defense as the Cougars finished off a run of 11 straight bowl games.

His 2013 debut season as defensive coordinator at BYU saw the Cougars finish 12th nationally in yards per play, 16th in pass efficiency defense and 22nd in scoring defense, despite having to defend the fourth-most plays in the nation due to BYU's up-tempo offense.

In 2012, Howell coached the secondary for a BYU defense that was third nationally in total defense and 10th in passing yards allowed. The 2011 Cougars were 15th in pass efficiency defense and 13th in overall defense.

In 2010, Howell was promoted from defensive graduate assistant to linebackers coach.

HIGH SCHOOL COACHING CAREER (2002-06): Howell got his coaching career started in the high school ranks, first as a defensive line coach at Sky View High School before becoming a defensive coordinator at Weber High School in 2003. He served as the head coach at Ben Lomond High School for three seasons before joining BYU as a defensive intern.

PLAYING CAREER: Snow College (2001-02): Played two seasons at Snow but injuries curtailed his career, and he moved into coaching. He graduated with a degree in history from Weber State in 2005, and he earned a master's in 2007 from the University of Phoenix in education. He and his wife Brook have four children, Dakota, Kayla, Autumn and Zion.

Shane Hunter
Special Teams. Coord./LBs
Idaho Falls, Idaho
BYU, 2011

Shane Hunter joined the Lobo Football program in January of 2024, and he serves as the special teams coordinator and linebackers coach for UNM. He comes to New Mexico after a two-year stint at Utah Tech.

Hunter has over four previous coaching stops serving as both a special teams and defensive coordinator, and he has coached every defensive position in one way or another, giving him tremendous insight not just into his position, but the entire defense.

PREVIOUS COACHING STOPS

UTAH TECH (2022-23): Hunter spent the past two seasons as the co- defensive coordinator and safeties coach (2023) and corners (2022) for the Utah Tech Trailblazers, a former junior college program that played then as Dixie State.

He coached three All-United Athletic Conference players in 2023, junior defensive lineman Syrus Webster and redshirt freshman long snapper Ryan Kean both claimed first team all-conference honors, while freshman wide receiver Beau Sparks and junior linebacker Will Leota earned second team recognition. Webster was the league's only unanimous first team pick on defense as he tied for third in the FCS in forced fumbles with four. He was also second in the UAC in sacks and third in TFLs.

His 2022 defense had three First Team All-WAC picks on defense, with Webster being joined by defensive back Tyrell Grayson and linebacker Leota. Linebacker Malaki Malaki and defensive back Darrius Nash earned second team honors, as did kicker Connor Brooksby and punter Andrew Day.

VIRGINIA (2016-21): Hunter spent six seasons with the Virginia Cavaliers, the first five as inside linebackers coach and the final 2021 season as safeties coach.

In his only season as safeties coach, hybrid safety/corner Anthony Johnson picked off a team-high tying three passes and was third on the team with five PBUs and Virginia's defense recorded a pair of shutouts on the season, blanking both William & Mary and Duke.

In 2020, two of Hunter's inside linebackers earned All-ACC honors as Nick Jackson took home third-team accolades, and Zane Zandier was named honorable mention for the second year in a row. Jackson was No. 2 in the ACC and No. 16 in the nation with 10.5 tackles per game, No. 6 in the nation and No. 2 in the ACC with 105 tackles and No. 2 in the ACC and No. 16 in the nation with 5.5 solo tackles per game.

The 2019 season was a special one in Charlottesville as the Cavaliers won the Atlantic Coast Conference's Coastal Division for the first time and made their first appearance in the ACC Championship Game. UVA appeared in its first New Year's Six bowl game, the Orange Bowl, and finished ranked No. 24 in the final College Football Playoff poll and No. 25 in the final USA Today Coaches Poll. It is UVA's first string of three- straight bowl appearances since UVA went to four bowl games between 2002 and 2005.

Despite losing multiple starters on the defensive side of the ball for the season, UVA broke the program record for sacks in a season in 2019. The Chris Long-led defense in 2007 set the standard with 43, and the 2019 edition concluded the year with 46, which ranked No. 6 in the nation. Inside linebacker Jordan Mack led all ACC linebackers with 7.5 sacks. In all, 27 of UVA's 46 sacks were recorded by linebackers, which included 13 by Hunter's inside linebackers. UVA also was No. 22 in the nation in tackles for loss, which included 22.5 from the inside linebackers.

Mack, the ACC's Jim Tatum Award winner as the league's scholar- athlete of the year, also became Hunter's second Campbell Trophy (Academic Heisman) finalist at UVA which includes 2017 winner Micah Kiser.

Hunter's inside linebacker group assisted with UVA finishing 2018 12th in the nation in team passing efficiency defense (107.62), 16th in passing yards allowed (183.0), 20th in the nation in team defense (330.5), and 20th in scoring defense (20.1). UVA's 28-0 drubbing of South Carolina in the 2018 Belk Bowl was the first time an SEC team was shut out in a bowl by a non-SEC team since the 1975 Gator Bowl.

In 2017, Hunter oversaw a tremendous senior season for inside linebacker Kiser, who was named the Campbell Trophy winner and led the ACC in tackles for the third year in a row. Only Boston College's Luke Kuechly (2009-11) had previously accomplished the feat in league history. Kiser was also a three-time first-team All-ACC honoree and received multiple All-America honors over the past two seasons. Kiser's 145 tackles in 2017 rank No. 2 all-time on UVA's single-season ledger.

BYU (2013-15): Hunter spent three seasons at his alma mater as a graduate assistant, working with the defensive front seven and special teams, serving from 2013-15. The Cougars went 25-14 during his time in Provo including ranked wins over Texas and Boise State. While working with the defense, BYU recorded 68 takeaways (43 interceptions and 25 fumble recoveries) over the 39 games from 2013-15.

SNOW COLLEGE (2011-12): Hunter was the defensive line coach for two seasons at Snow College, and he also served as special teams coordinator in 2012. The 2012 Badgers went 11-1 on the season and excelled in special teams. Three punters all averaged over 40 yards per kick, and as a team, the squad averaged 40.9 yards a kick and netted 38.6 as Snow allowed just six returns all season. Placekicker Spencer Groner scored 93 points on the season.

PLAYING CAREER: Snow College (2007), BYU (2008-10): Hunter played his freshman season at Snow College in Ephraim, Utah before moving to BYU, where he was a middle linebacker. During his senior season in 2010, Hunter recorded 85 tackles, 3.5 tackles for loss, two interceptions, one forced fumble, and one fumble recovery. He started all 13 games and earned honorable mention All-Mountain West honors.

He was also named to the Academic All-Mountain West team and was a member of the National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society. He earned a two degrees from BYU in communications in 2011. He and his wife Carrie have four children.

Famika Anae
Offensive Line

Laie, Hawai'i
BYU, 2014

Famika Anae joined the Lobo Football program in December of 2023, and he serves as the offensive line coach for UNM. He comes to New Mexico after a two-year stint at Campbell.

Overall, Anae has coached in the collegiate ranks for 10 seasons over five schools.

The 2024 season will be his sixth working with Mendenhall.

PREVIOUS COACHING STOPS

CAMPBELL (2022-23): Anae served as the offensive line coach for the Campbell Camels for two seasons, helping oversee the transition from the Big South Conference to the CAA. In his second season at Campbell, Anae coached a pair of All-CAA honorees as Mike Edwards earned First Team All-CAA at offensive tackle, and his bookend counterpart Tyler McLellan was a third-team pick.

Edwards was a two-time First Team pick under Anae, and he was also an All-American in 2022 when they were members of the Big South. McLellan, meanwhile, was a four-time all-conference honoree (first, second or third team included) after the graduate student started all 11 games of the season in 2023 at right tackle.

The duo helped push Campbell to over 400 yards of total offense six times, including 613 yards in a 56-7 win at The Citadel, the third most ever in a single game and a school record against an NCAA Division I opponent.

Campbell's offensive line ranked No. 2 in the FCS in pass blocking efficiency (93.2), according to PFF. The CU offense also lead the CAA and finished fifth nationally in pass completion percentage (.702), 10th in first down offense (250), 15th in third down conversion percentage (.454), and 17th overall team passing efficiency (150.84).

TEXAS A&M COMMERCE (2019-21): Anae spent three seasons with the Lions, coaching the offensive line at Texas A&M Commerce from 2019 to 2021. At Commerce, Anae helped guide the Lions to 18 wins over his final two seasons, also coaching three All-Lone Star Conference linemen. In 2021, the offensive line unit made way for an offense that gained 3,580 total yards and allowed less than two sacks per game.

Tackle Amon Simon earned All-American honors for the second time in Anae's tenure in 2021, and he was also named to D2Football's Elite 100 team while registering Second Team Region IV, and First Team All-LSC accolades. Center Christian Hernandez was also named Second Team All-LSC.

In 2019, the Lions advanced to the NCAA Division II Regional final, going 11-3 and earning a No. 11 finish in the final American Football Coaches' Association rankings of the season. Simon was named to two All-American teams and was the LSC's Offensive Lineman of the Year, guard Deion Malone was named All-Region and First Team All-LSC, and Hernandez was named honorable mention All-LSC.

DIXIE STATE (now Utah Tech, 2018): Anae spent one full season with Dixie State in his first true full-time role as a lead position coach, coaching tight ends and serving as video coordinator. With DSU, the Trailblazers went 7-4 in his one season.

Trailblazer tight ends caught 19 passes during the season for 194 yards and a touchdown and they helped block for an offense that rushed for 1,486 yards and threw for 3,558 yards and scoring an average of 31.1 points per game.

VIRGINIA (2016-18): Anae spent three seasons with Bronco Mendenhall on the Cavalier staff as an assistant offensive line coach under Garrett Tujague. His father Robert was the offensive coordinator as well.

BYU (2014-15): Anae spent two seasons with Bronco Mendenhall on the Cougar staff as an assistant offensive line coach under Garrett Tujague. His father Robert was the offensive coordinator as well.

PLAYING CAREER: BYU (2011-12): As a player, Anae played offensive line at BYU from 2011- 12 before injuries ended his career after his sophomore season.

Anae was a starter as a sophomore, earning All-Independent honors. He also earned the All-Tradition Award, the Spirit Award, and he was inducted to the 2012 Honor Team.

Anae earned his bachelor's degree in history from BYU in 2014. He is married to Tessi Leila Tolutau, and they have four children Liane, Savani, Fiaali'i, and Litiavava'u.

Kirk Garner
Running Backs
Baltimore, Md.
Virginia, 2017

Kirk Garner joined the Lobo Football program in December of 2023, and he serves as the running backs coach for UNM. He comes to New Mexico after a one-year stint at East Tennessee State.

Overall, Garner has seven years of coaching experience and four as a full-time staff member. The 2024 season is his second as a position coach. In April of 2024 he was named a "G5 Coach on the Rise" by Our Coaching Network.

The 2024 season will be his fourth working with Mendenhall.

PREVIOUS COACHING STOPS

EAST TENNESSEE STATE (2022-23): Garner spent one season with East Tennessee State, coaching running backs for the Bucs in 2023. The 2023 season saw East Tennessee State rush for 1,704 yards and 15 touchdowns in just 11 games, with running back Bryson Irby leading the way with a team-leading and career-high 531 yards on 108 carries, 4.9 yards per tote. He also added a career-best five touchdowns and twice rushed for more than 100 yards.

VANDERBILT (2021-22): Garner spent two seasons with Vanderbilt in his first full-time coaching position, serving as the offensive quality control coach for the Commodores under Clark Lea and offensive coordinator David Raih.

Vandy in 2022 showcased an improved offense as the team just missed qualifying for a bowl game while the offense improved to 295 points, the second-

VIRGINIA (2018-20): Garner got his coaching career started with a three-year stint at Virginia under Bronco Mendenhall as a defensive graduate assistant, working under current defensive coordinator Nick Howell. As a G.A., he worked mostly with the defensive backs.

PLAYING CAREER: VIRGINIA (2014-17): As a player, Garner played four seasons at Virginia, the final two under Bronco Mendenhall. He was a four-year letterwinner, appearing in 32 games for the Cavaliers, missing the final 12 games of the 2017 season. That year he moved into a student coach role.

Overall he recorded 22 tackles and a 1.0 TFLs. Included in that was a career-best 15 tackles in 2015. He earned a pair of degrees from Virginia, graduating with a degree in anthropology in 2017, and then earning his master's in higher education in 2018.

Matt Johns
Tight Ends
Chalfont, Pa.
Virginia, 2016

Matt Johns joined the Lobo Football program in December of 2023, and he serves as the tight ends coach for UNM. He comes to New Mexico after a five-year stint at William & Mary.

A former collegiate quarterback at Virginia, Johns brings experience at several different positions to the Lobo coaching staff, as well as having previously served as a passing game coordinator.

The 2024 season will be his second working with Mendenhall.

PREVIOUS COACHING STOPS

WILLIAM & MARY (2019-23): Johns spent five seasons with the Tribe of William & Mary, serving as quarterbacks coach for his final four seasons and passing game coordinator for the final two seasons there. He also spent a year as inside receivers and tight ends coach.

In his two seasons as passing game coordinator, William & Mary showcased tremendous success through the air. In 2022, the Tribe ranked seventh in passing efficiency (164.62), fourth in yards per attempt (9.64), and sixth in yards per completion (16.04). William & Mary scored 33.5 points per game in 2022, good for fifth in program history, and the offense gained 448.8 yards per game, good for fourth in program history.

In 2023 despite William & Mary switching to a more run-based offense, the Tribe finished third nationally in fewest interceptions thrown (4) and ranked 33rd nationally in third-down percentage (42.7%).

With William & Mary, the Tribe advanced to the FCS Quarterfinals in 2022 and won 11 games, tying a program record.

He coached Darius Wilson, who was named the state's No. 2 quarterback by VaSID, and who earned CAA Offensive Rookie of the Year honors in 2021.

His first year with William & Mary was in 2019, serving as inside receivers and tight ends coach and W&M increased its team scoring by nearly 100 points.

VIRGINIA (2018): Johns spent one season as a graduate assistant with the Cavalier defense after his playing career at Virginia ended. In his lone season at Virginia played in the Belk Bowl, went 8-5 and saw the defense net three All-ACC selections. It also ranked in the top 20 nationally in interceptions (17, 11th) and passing yards per game (183.0, 16th) while just missing the top 20 in scoring defense (21.0, 21st).

PLAYING CAREER: VIRGINIA (2014-17): As a player, Johns was a four- year letterwinner quarterback where he played his final season for Bronco Mendenhall. At UVA, Johns finished his career 11th on the career list for yards (4,233), sixth in touchdown passes (30) and sixth in 200-yard games (6).

Johns graduated with a B.A. in economics from Virginia in 2016, and an M.A. in higher education/athletic administration from Virginia in 2017. Matt is engaged to Brittany Ratcliffe, who plays forward for the Washington Spirit in the NWSL.

Jan Jorgensen

Edges

Helper, Utah
BYU, 2009

Jan Jorgensen joined the Lobo Football program in December of 2023, and he serves as the edge coach for UNM. He comes to New Mexico after a serving as a defensive analyst at his alma mater of BYU.

A former star defensive lineman for the Cougars, Jorgensen brings a variety of experiences with him to UNM, having served as a line coach, a defensive coordinator and as an analyst.

The 2024 season will be his fourth working with Mendenhall.

PREVIOUS COACHING STOPS

BYU (2022-23): Jorgensen spent two seasons with his alma mater in the role of defensive analyst. As the D.A., Jorgensen aided the coaching staff in breaking down game film, scouting and analytics.

SNOW COLLEGE (2019-21): Jorgensen was the defensive coordinator for Snow College in Ephraim, Utah. While at Snow, the Badgers went 20-6 over his three seasons, allowing just 17.8 points per game over the three seasons.

Snow's best year was 2020 when the team went 8-1, and defensively the 2021 team went 7-2 allowing just 13.7 points per game. That 2021 team totaled 28 sacks and 19 takeaways (12 interceptions and seven fumble recoveries). Amazingly, the defense, while allowing just 123 points for the season, scored 42 as the defense had two interception returns for touchdowns (from 65 and 95 yards out) and four fumble returns for touchdowns (from 2, 28, 36, and 38 yards out).

ORANGE COAST COLLEGE (2018): Jorgensen spent his first year as a full-time coach on the collegiate level as the defensive coordinator at Oregon Coast College.

BYU (2015-17): Jorgensen got his collegiate coaching career off the ground at his alma mater, serving and a graduate assistant for the defense working with the edge players for three seasons, helping the Cougars to a pair of bowl appearances.

PLAYING CAREER: BYU (2006-09): As a player, Jorgensen was a four- year starter, earning Third Team Freshman All-American from the Sporting News in 2006 and being named Honorable Mention All- America in 2007. He was a three-time All-Mountain West Conference selection (2007, 2008, and 2009), leading the league in sacks with 13.5 in 2007. He is still second all-time in Mountain West history for career sacks with 28.5 and he was BYU's sack leader for three consecutive seasons from 2007-09.

He ranked No. 1 at BYU in career sacks since 2000 with 30, which is good for No. 2 all-time at BYU. His 14 sacks in 2007 is the most by a Cougar in the 2000s, and overall he is second at BYU in career tackles for loss (since 2000) with 44, second at BYU in career quarterback hurries (since 2000) with 22 and tied for second at BYU in career fumble recoveries (since 2000) with six.

He earned a pair of degrees from BYU, earning a B.S. in social science in 2009 and a Master's from the Marriott School of Business in 2017.

He is married to Ann Jorgensen, and together they have a daughter, Charlotte.

Charles Mack
Defensive Backs

Lithonia, Ga.
Richmond, 2017

Charles Mack joined the Lobo Football program in December of 2023, and he serves as the defensive backs coach for UNM. He comes to New Mexico after a one-year stint at VMI.

Mack has been in the coaching profession for six years, and he also has spent time on the administrative side of college athletics, giving him a unique perspective into the coaching profession as he spent time as an event management assistant (Georgia, 2018) and as an assistant director of facilities and event management and gameday operations (Richmond, 2017).

The 2024 season will be his fourth working with Mendenhall.

PREVIOUS COACHING STOPS

VMI (2023): Mack spent one year at Virginia Military Institute serving as safeties coach and director of player of personnel.

In 2023 with VMI, Mack coached Josh Knapp to a career season with 87 tackles, two sacks, three PBUs, and two fumble recoveries, and Evan Eller to Second Team All-SoCon honors after a team-high 107 tackles, two forced fumbles, and an interception.

VIRGINIA (2019-2023): Mack got his coaching career off the ground with four years on the staff at Virginia, three of which were with Bronco Mendenhall. He began his career in 2019 as a regional scout, where he was instrumental in the recruiting efforts for the Cavaliers. He then moved into a graduate assistant coaching position, working with the offense in 2020 and 2021 before moving over to the defense in 2022.

While with the Cavs, Virginia was bowl eligible all three seasons, including a trip to the Orange Bowl.

PLAYING CAREER: Richmond (2013-17): As a player, Mack played for four years at Richmond, where he played in 45 career games for the Spiders. Overall, he recorded 59 career tackles, six PBUs, an interception, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. His senior year he helped lead the Spiders into the FCS Quarterfinals, including a career-high eight tackles in a second-round win over North Dakota. Richmond also made the FCS playoffs in 2014 and 2015, including a semifinal appearance in 2015.

Mack earned bachelor's degree in leadership studies and sociology from Richmond in 2017, and he earned a master's in social and philosophical foundations from UVA in 2021. He is married to the former Carley Wilson and they have a son, Wesley.

Donte Wilkins
Defensive Line

Woodbridge, Va.
Virginia, 2017

Donte Wilkins joined the Lobo Football program in December of 2023, and he serves as the defensive line coach for UNM. He comes to New Mexico after a two-year stint at Lafayette where he coached the defensive line.

Along with his time with Lafayette, Wilkins got his coaching start under Bronco Mendenhall at Virginia, his alma mater. He also brings with him experience as an athletic performance coach.

The 2024 season will be his fourth working with Mendenhall.

PREVIOUS COACHING STOP

LAFAYETTE (2022-23): Wilkins' first full-time coaching stop was two seasons with Lafayette, helping the Leopards to a 2023 FCS Playoff appearance, its first since 2013.

With Lafayette he coached two-time All-Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year Malik Hamm, who also became the first five-time All-Patriot League performer. In 2022, the Leopards finished second in scoring defense (21.7 ppg) and first in rushing defense (111.0 ypg). In 2023 the Leopards led the league in sacks with 37 (16 more than the second place team) and they again led the league in rushing defense (123.1 ypg).

Overall, along with Hamm, five of his charges earned All-Patriot League honors: Blamassi Meite (First Team); Jaylon Joseph (Second Team), Damon Washington (Second Team) and Jyaire Stevens (Second Team).

VIRGINIA (2019-21): Wilkins got his collegiate coaching career started under his collegiate head coach Bronco Mendenhall. He spent two seasons as a defensive graduate assistant. Additionally, he served as a regional scout under Mendenhall.

UCLA (2017-18): After his playing career, Wilkins started in collegiate athletics as an assistant athletic performance coach at UCLA, working with the football program.

PLAYING CAREER: VIRGINA (2013-16): As a player, Wilkins played from 2013-16 playing under both Mike London and Bronco Mendenhall. Nate Pototschnik Athletic Performance

Woodbridge, Va. Virginia, 2017

Nate Pototschnik joined the Lobo Football program in December of 2023, and he serves as the Director of Athletic Performance for UNM. He comes to New Mexico after an eight-year stint at Virginia where he served as strength and conditioning coach, working for six seasons with Bronco Mendenhall.

Along with his time at Virginia, Pototschik served in the U.S. Army for over 10 years, finishing up his Army career as an Aviation Officer stationed at Pearl Harbor. Pototschnik's nickname is "Blackjack", which comes from the callsign of the unit he commanded in Hawaii.

The 2024 season will be his seventh working with Mendenhall.

PREVIOUS COACHING STOPS

VIRGINIA (2016-2023): Pototschnik spent eight years at the University of Virginia, working with the football team where he implemented various programs geared at maximizing athletic potential and preparing men for football.

With Virginia, he not only worked to enhance the physical capabilities of Cav football players but he developed position specific performance systems, oversaw leadership development programs, managed tech integration into the training space and executed the return to play program for injured athletes.

Using his time in the Army as a base, Pototschnik served as a teacher, coach and mentor to Virginia student-athletes while focusing on a holistic approach that not only developed student-athletes physically, but also developed character and fortitude.

UNITED STATES ARMY (2006-2016): While not a collegiate coaching position, Pototschnik spent over 10 years as an officer in the United States Army, serving at Fort Rucker, Alabama, Fort Campbell, Kentucky, Wheeler Army Air Field in Hawaii, and Pearl Harbor-Hickam in Hawaii. He also spent time serving in Afghanistan at Bagram and Kandahar.

His 10-plus years with the Army saw him rise from flight school student to aviation officer, and along the way he spent time as a platoon leader, assistant operations officer and a company commander.

Over his 10 years he led units of varying sizes from platoon to company with the primary mission set of delivering aviation asset capabilities in support of the ground force commander.

PLAYING CAREER: UNITED STATES MILITARY ACADEMY at WEST POINT (2002-06): Pototschnik played rugby while attending West Point. He earned his bachelor's degree in economics in 2006 from West Point and his master's of education in kinesiology and exercise science from Virginia in 2018.

He holds a variety of certifications and licenses including RSCC and CSCS from the NSCA, Level 1 certification from USA Weightlifting, and several certifications from Functional Movement Systems. He also has been licensed since 2008 as a commercial helicopter pilot, and as a UH-60 Blackhawk pilot.

Joe Spaziani
Director of Operations

Virginia, 2018
Hingham, Mass.

Joe Spaziani joined the Lobo Football program in December of 2023, and he serves as the Director of Football Operations for UNM. He comes to New Mexico after a four-year stint at Virginia where he served in a variety of capacities.

This will be Spaziani's third year working with Bronco Mendenhall.

With New Mexico, Spaziani handles many of the logistics that aid in keeping a Division I program on task. Spaziani handles all facets of travel for the program as well as working with UNM's athletic performance staff in directing UNM's daily meal schedules. He also serves as a liaison between the football program and many of the on-campus constituents at New Mexico.

Prior to UNM, Joe spent four years at Virginia, serving in various positions. He started his career under his collegiate coach Bronco Mendenhall as a regional scout before serving three years as a graduate assistant, spending two seasons with the offensive line and one with quarterbacks.

He spent his final year as an analyst; working on special projects for the football program.

Spaziani spent one year in professional football, playing in 2019 for the Toronto Argonauts as a long-snapper after being drafted by Toronto in the sixth round (47th overall). He played five seasons at Virginia (from 2014-18), playing 30 games as a long snapper after starting his career as a quarterback.

Spaziani earned three degrees from Virginia. He earned a bachelor's in 2018 in foreign affairs and a master's in 2019 in higher education. He earned his doctoral degree in 2024 in higher education. Spaziani, a native of Hingham, Massachusetts, comes from a coaching family as his father Frank was a head coach at Boston College and spent 47 years coaching in the FBS and the Canadian Football League.

Pat Hickman
Chief of Staff / Director of Player Personnel

Boise State, 2001
Rigby, Idaho.

Pat Hickman joined the Lobo Football program in December of 2023, and he serves as the Chief of Staff and Director of Player Personnel for UNM. He comes to New Mexico after a two-year stint at BYU as director of operations and director of recruiting.

This will be Hickman's 17th year working with Bronco Mendenhall.

With New Mexico, Hickman oversees all facets of roster management for the program, and he works hand-in-hand with the director of scouting in planning recruiting visits and roster management. He serves as a liaison with many of Lobo Football's corporate partners for recruiting events.

He had two stints at BYU, serving as director of operations and director of player development and high school relations from 2006-15, and as director of operations and director of recruiting from 2022-23. Hickman in his most recent time with BYU, oversaw many of the operation line items for budgeting and recruiting, including setting up visits and working with gift-in-kind partners for weekend visits.

His first stint with BYU coincided with Bronco Mendenhall becoming the head coach at BYU, and he served that entire time as director of operations and director of player development. Along with handling budgeting, working with scheduling, practice planning and all facets of travel, Hickman oversaw many of the developmental duties with the roster including academics and community service.

Hickman followed Mendenhall to Virginia and served as the director of player development for two seasons (2016-17) and director of scouting (2018- 2021). As such he oversaw roster management and worked with the operations director on recruiting visits as well as overseeing many facets of Virginia's community service programs.

Hickman got his start in college athletics administration in 2002, starting a four-year run at Boise State in facility management and operations, helping Boise State host several NCAA events.

Hickman graduated with a bachelor's of science degree in health promotion from Boise State in 2001 and a master's in athletic administration from Idaho State in 2005. He is married to the former Celeste Fruean and they have two children Jared and Malia.

Jersey Number Selection Ceremony

Everything is earned and nothing is given, and that includes the honor of wearing a Lobo Football jersey. Bringing the tradition with him from Virginia, the team goes through all of Spring Football and the beginning of camp with no numbers on their jerseys, just their names. The leadership council votes for players that have earned the right to select a jersey number for the season. Luke Wysong was honored with the first pick, selecting his usual No. 15.

Any player picking in the first ceremony has the additional honor of having a protected number, in that no other player will get to wear it, meaning no duplicate. Only players voted on to pick a number are allowed to dress out for games.

2023 Box Scores

Game 1: 9/2/2023 — College Station, Texas — Att: 97,560

10 — 52

COLLEGE STATION, Texas --- Texas A&M scored touchdowns on each of its first five drives to spoil an encouraging opening game effort by New Mexico as the No. 23/25 Aggies defeated the Lobos 51-10 in front of 97,560 fans. The Lobos return to Albuquerque to open a two-game homestand, first against Tennessee Tech next Saturday in the home opener.

The Lobos trailed just 7-0 after a first quarter that saw UNM play keep-away. UNM didn't score on its opening drive, but it chewed up 6:46 of the first quarter. Twice UNM converted on third down on the drive, going 2-for-3 on third down on the opening drive after ranking last in the country in that stat a year ago.

However, a 28-point second quarter was UNM's undoing. The Lobos were able to answer an Aggie touchdown on the first play of the second quarter with a brilliant 27-yard touchdown run by Jacory Croskey-Merritt, keyed by a huge downfield block by Andrew Erickson.

From there the rest of the half was all Texas A&M. Conner Weigman hit Noah Davis for his third touchdown pass of the half to make it 21-7, and he added one more sandwiched around a Le'Von Moss 2-yard run to make it 35-7. The Aggies tried to tack on at the end of the half but Tavian Combs broke through the line and blocked a 48-yard field goal attempt by Randy Bond to keep it there.

UNM forced a punt to open the second half and then burned over seven minutes of clock time, culminating in a 27-yard Luke Drzewiecki field goal, but the Aggies answered with a fifth Weigman touchdown pass to make it 42-10 after three quarters. The Lobo defense regathered after halftime and turned in a pair of sacks, including a 15-yarder for Kyler Drake.

Overall, the Aggies only totaled 411 yards, while UNM had 222. That total is more than UNM had in UNM's last two SEC games combined, as they had 210 yards combined against A&M in 2021 (122) and LSU in 2022 (88). Penalties were a bugaboo in game one for both teams as UNM had 10 for 114 yards and Texas A&M had nine for 88 yards.

Dylan Hopkins in his first start for UNM was very good, going 16-for-25 with 115 yards. Jeremiah Hixon played just three quarters and had six catches for 42 yards, and DJ Washington was also solid with four catches for 42 yards. Croskey-Merritt led the rushing attack with 50 yards on 11 carries.

UNM's offensive line, which struggled mightily in 2022, allowed just two sacks on the day and kept Hopkins out of harms way.

Game 2: 9/9/2023 — Albuquerque, N.M. — Att: 17,279

10 — 56

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- Jacory Croskey-Merritt had a career day with a career-high 162 yards and a career-high three touchdowns, and Dylan Hopkins was just about as efficient as one could be as the Lobos ended a 10-game losing streak in resounding style with a 56-10 win over Tennessee Tech in front of UNM's best season-opening crowd in five years.

Croskey-Merritt had two big runs, racing in from 48 yards in the first quarter and then surpassing it with a 55-yard burst on UNM's opening drive of the second half. In between, he punched in a 1-yard run after Caleb Medford pulled in a 49-yard pass to the 1-foot line despite being held on the play. Merritt had never scored three touchdowns in any game while at Alabama State.

That pass to Medford was one of a number of brilliant throws by Hopkins, who was 13-for-17 for 273 yards and four touchdowns. After a 7-7 opening quarter in which both teams scored on its opening drives, UNM went to work. It was the Hopkins-to-Medford pass play that was the key marker in what ended up being an 89-yard touchdown drive, UNM's third touchdown drive of the season that was 87 yards or more.

After a stop, Hopkins took over at the Lobo 22, and he needed no time in order to make it 21-7. Hopkins dropped back and hit speedster Duece Jones in stride for a career-best 78-yard touchdown. UNM then got a turnover when Ray Leutele knocked the ball loose from back-up quarterback Hayes Gibson, and Dimitri Johnson returned it 37 yards into Golden Eagle territory. Hopkins cleaned up that drive by hitting Luke Wysong in the end zone to make it 28-7.

Tennessee Tech drove the length of the field and tacked on a 37-yard field goal to make it 28-10 at the break. Tech opened the half with the ball but UNM pitched a three and out, and after taking over at its own 38-yard line, Croskey-Merritt put up his third touchdown of the game. That three-and-out was the beginning of a stellar half of defense in which UNM allowed just 76 yards of offense on 33 plays.

UNM made it 42-10 on the legs of local product Dorian Lewis, who rushed three times for 49 yards before Hopkins hit DJ Washington for 16 yards for Washington's first Division I score. Hopkins then capped off his night with a 46-yard touchdown pass to Kaydin Pope.

Overall the Lobos totaled 587 yards in the game, with a near even split of 291 passing and 296 rushing.

27 Game 3: 9/16/2023 Albuquerque, N.M.
17 Att: 27,414

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- It was a game of missed opportunities for New Mexico, and a 75-yard NMSU touchdown pass right after a fourth quarter score spelled doom as the Lobos dropped a 27-17 decision to New Mexico State. The Lobos now head out for a two-game road trip, starting with a long cross-country trip to face UMass next Saturday at 1:30 pm Mountain Time, 3:30 pm Eastern Time.

New Mexico trailed 17-10 at the break even though it felt like UNM should have been up. On the opening drive, UNM got all the down to the Aggie three-yard line, but a first down sack moved UNM to the 12-yard line, and the Lobos ended up settling for a 25-yard Luke Drzewiecki field goal. After UNM forced a three-and-out, the Lobos again waltzed right down the field.

After Jacory Croskey-Merritt caught a 31-yard pass to the Aggie 19, Sherod White came in and escaped an initial tackle but then fumbled the ball away, ending a chance for UNM to go up 10-0 early.

NMSU took the turnover and went 88 yards in 10 plays, capped by a Star Thomas 2-yard run. UNM answered when Croskey-Merritt scored one play after Justin Holaday barreled into the end zone, only to be oddly called short. Croskey-Merritt's touchdown was his fifth of the season.

NMSU tied it with an Ethan Albertson field goal and then the Aggies scored in the final minute when Diego Pavia hit Jonathan Brady for 31-yard touchdown. That followed the only three-and-out all game for UNM.

Ethan Albertson added a 47-yard field goal but UNM got a 1-yard touchdown pass from Dylan Hopkins to Andrew Erickson early in the fourth to make it a 20-17 game, but on the first play after that, Pavia hit Brady over the middle and he raced 75 yards for a 27-17 lead.

NMSU tried to run out the clock, but couldn't do it, failing the run for a first down on both second-and-1 and third-and-1. The Lobos forced a punt and drove the field needing two scores. UNM almost got one quick but DJ Washington caught a touchdown but was just out of bounds when he hauled it in. Needing two scores and down to a four-and-5, Drzewiecki banged his 29-yard field goal attempt off the left upright, and that ended any chance of a comeback.

The Lobos outgained New Mexico State 401-397, and had 26 first downs to NMSU's 15. The issue was the two long touchdowns, totaling 106 yards on two plays.

34 Game 4: 9/23/2023 Amhearst, Mass.
31 Att: 8,298

AMHERST, Mass. --- New Mexico allowed a fluky late 65-yard touchdown pass with 45 seconds left to go to overtime, but UNM forced a field goal and Jacory Croskey-Merritt plunged in from two yards out to give New Mexico a heart-stopping 34-31 overtime win, ending UNM's nine-game road losing streak. The win evened UNM's record at 2-2 and gives a little momentum to the team as it opens conference play at the site of UNM's last road win, Wyoming.

In overtime, won the toss and elected to play defense, and that worked to their advantage. UMass' Ahmad Heston, who had a prayer answered in the final minute when his wobbly bomb that looked like a sure interception ended up in the arms of Anthony Simpson for a 65-yard touchdown, rushed three times in the overtime, the final time on third-and-four, and Destin Gainer and Tyler Kiehne made a huge stop to force a field goal attempt from Cameron Carson, which he hit from 34 yards out.

That gave UMass its only lead of the game, but it put UNM's offense on the field. On third-and-8, Dylan Hopkins threw towards the end zone for Caleb Medford, but he was interfered with, giving UNM a first down at the 8-yard line. Hopkins bulled his way to inside the 1-yard line, and then UMass was called for a delay of game. That didn't move the ball, but UMass head coach Don Brown was then given an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty, which gave UNM an extra down.

On second-and-goal from the two, Croskey-Merritt buried his nose behind the left side of the line and he let the big fellas up front do the dirty work, and he scored from 2-yards out to give UNM the win.

Overtime was the furthest thing from UNM's mind up 28-14 at the break as the Lobos scored touchdowns on four straight drives. Hopkins hit Medford from 12 yards out for the opening score of the game, and after UNM got a stop on fourth down in UMass territory, the Lobos needed just four plays to make it 14-0. Croskey-Merritt raced in from 21 yards out for a touchdown. UMass got a score back on a 2-yard Kay'Ron Lynch-Adams run, but UNM responded in kind.

Duece Jones made a wild one-handed catch to convert a long third down, and Hopkins kept the ball and scored from four yards out to put UNM back up 21-7.

UMass answered with a 24-yard touchdown pass, but Hopkins and company went back to work, and this time it was Sherod White who finished it off with a 7-yard run. That gave UNM a 28-14 lead at the break.

UNM struggled offensively in the second half, only gaining 50 yards, and UMass crept back into the game with two field goals from Carson, from 32 and 28 yards out. They then got the long pass with 45 seconds left, and the ensuing two-point conversion to tie the game.

While UNM didn't score in the second half, UNM continually made big plays to end drives of force field goals on defense. Syaire Riley and Tavian Combs stopped a fourth-and-1 in UMass territory, and Christian Ellis made two key fourth down plays, knocking away a fourth-and-3 pass and a fourth quarter tackle two yards from a conversion.

The Lobos were outgained 495 to 328, but the Lobos forced three stops on fourth down, and that was the key in the game.

26 — 35

Game 5: 9/30/2023
Laramie, Wyo.
Att: 25,477

LARAMIE, Wyo. --- New Mexico allowed two long touchdowns in the third quarter, each of which looked to be stopped behind the line of scrimmage, and that was enough for Wyoming to hold off UNM in Laramie, as the Cowboys won 35-26. The Lobos now have a week off to get ready for a pair of home games, the first of which is on October 14 against San Jose State at 4 pm at University Stadium.

The game turned on UNM's first drive of the second half. The Lobos quickly moved the ball near midfield, but on third down at six from the UNM 43, Hopkins threw behind Jeremiah Hixon, and Wrook Brown picked of the pass, returning it to the Lobo 46-yard line. On the next play, Harrison Waylee, who was pinned behind the line of scrimmage, somehow escaped, turned the corner and UNM missed two downfield sideline tackles, and the Cowboys had a touchdown and a 22-9 lead.

After Luke Drzewiecki hit a 26-yard field goal which followed a 48-yard scramble by Dylan Hopkins, the Lobos got a stop, but couldn't capitalize, with Aaron Rodriguez hitting a 51-yard punt to the Cowboy 34. On the final play of the half, Andrew Peasley was running for his life when his dump-off pass to Ayir Asante turned into a host of cutbacks and missed tackles, ending in a back-breaking 66-yard touchdown and a 29-12 Cowboy lead at the end of three.

The Lobos made a game of it in the fourth quarter. After Dylan Hopkins was banged up, UNM used both DC Tabscott and Devon Dampier on the next drive, and it ended in a Dampier to Hixon 14-yard touchdown to cut the lead to 29-19. Another long run, this 66 yards by Waylee, set up Wyoming inside the Lobo 10-yard line, but the defense stiffened and forced a field goal to move the lead to 32-19. UNM then had Dampier race 58 yards on the first play of the next drive, but a downfield hold moved the ball back to the Wyoming 43, and UNM ended up punting, which hurt.

After a stop, UNM took over on its own 1-yard line and Dampier led the Lobos the entire length of the field with DJ Washington scoring on a fourth-and-5 play as Dampier hit him at the 2-yard line and it with Washington fighting for the goal line, DJ Wingfield gave a tush-push to get into the end zone to make it 32-26. UNM then had a shot on the onside kick, but Wyoming jumped on the loose ball and tacked on a field goal with 11 seconds left for the final margin.

New Mexico took the opening kickoff and went right down the field, mostly through the air. UNM never faced a third down on the drive as Hopkins was 6-for-6. He twice hit Ryan Davis for first downs on the drive, and he finished off the drive with a 17-yard pass to Jeremiah Hixon in which he toe-tapped just inside the pylon for touchdown. The issue was the extra point as DeVonne Harris knocked over UNM's long snapper and blocked the kick, and it bounced perfectly to Jakorey Hawkins, who ran it in for a defensive two-point score.

Wyoming, now down 6-2, got the ball back after each team traded punts, and Andrew Peasley was able to run it in from two-yards out after a 22-yard pass to Treyton Welch set up Wyoming at first and goal. UNM was able to tie the game on a Drzewiecki field goal of 39 yards, but John Hoyland answered with a 34 yard field goal. An Aaron Rodriguez late punt to the 2-yard line gave UNM a shot at a tie before halftime as UNM was able to force a short punt after a failed third-and-short, but in field goal range, Hopkins was sacked and fumbled, and only a touchdown saving tackle by JC Davis kept Wyoming from tacking on at the half.

52 — 24

Game 6: 10/14/2023
Albuquerque, N.M.
Att: 13,027

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- The third quarter spelled disaster for New Mexico as a 17-14 lead dissipated as San Jose State scored six of its first seven second half drive, getting two long touchdowns and capitalizing on an interception for another score in a 24-0 third quarter as the Spartans handed UNM its 14th straight conference loss, 52-17.

The Lobos didn't get a first down in the second half until early in the fourth quarter, and by then it was much too late. UNM was outscored 38-7 in the second half, getting outgained 375-130, and 95 of those came on UNM's final drive, its only touchdown drive of the second half. Nothing went right in that half, with UNM going three-and-out four times, four-and-out once and throwing a first play interception from its own six-yard line before the final scoring drive. While that was happening, the Spartans used big plays after big plays, getting four plays of 50 yards or more in the second half.

The Lobos went into halftime with the lead thanks to a bit of fourth down trickery. After a third-and-9 run by Dylan Hopkins got the ball to the San Jose State 4-yard line, bringing up a fourth-and-1, UNM called a time out and then used a direct snap to Croskey-Merritt, and he wasn't even touched until he hit the goal line, and then he bullied his way in with 31 seconds left in the half to give UNM a 17-14 lead at the break.

The lead didn't last, and it was the same thing that hurt UNM that did them in last week, long plays. San Jose State opened the second half with a 55-yard touchdown an a screen pass from Chevan Cordeiro to Kairee Robinson, a play that looked like it might go for a loss. That gave San Jose State the lead back just 19 seconds into the half, and it expounded from there.

After a three-and-out by UNM, Nick Nash caught a 54-yard touchdown pass on a play-action fake that made it 28-17. After UNM forced a field goal, Dylan Hopkins threw an interception at the Lobo 23-yard line, and Robinson raced in for his third touchdown of the game, second on the ground. That made it 38-17, finishing off a 24-point third quarter.

Overall, San Jose State got five plays of 50 or more yards, all in the second half. UNM had allowed five such plays in the first five games of the season combined before tonight.

The touchdown before the half was Croskey-Merritt's second touchdown of the half, as he finished off a drive in which UNM was able to respond after falling behind 7-3. On that drive early in the second quarter, UNM twice converted third and longs. The first was third-and-15, and Hopkins found Jeremiah Hixon for 19 yards and a first down. The second was when Hopkins hit Trace Bruckler for 12 on third-and-11.

San Jose State didn't do much on offense early, but still took a 7-3 lead when a missed assignment led to a punt block, which turned into a scoop and score for Justin Stearns. Luke Drzewiecki opened the scoring for UNM with a season-long 41 yard field goal.

21 – 42
Game 7: 10/21/2023
Albuquerque, N.M.
Att: 13,723

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- New Mexico was super-efficient on offense, scoring touchdowns on its first four drives of the game, and the Lobo defense picked off a season-high three passes and recovered a fumble as the Lobos ended a pair of long streaks with a 42-21 win over the visiting Hawai'i Rainbow Warriors. The win moved UNM to 3-4 on the season and 1-2 in the conference while Hawai'i dropped to 2-6 and 0-3 in the Mountain West.

It was a game of a lot of firsts, starting with the opening coin toss when UNM won the toss and actually deferred their option to the second half. It marked the first time in Danny Gonzales' four seasons as head coach that his squad won the toss and deferred. He did it to change the mojo of a slow third quarter trend, and it worked perfectly.

Of course, the first half went pretty well too. UNM's defense pitched a quick three and out and Dylan Hopkins and company went to work, going right down the field in seven plays, the last a picture-perfect pass from Hopkins to Jeremiah Hixon for a 28-yard score. It was one of three touchdown passes for Hopkins and one of two TD receptions for Hixon.

UNM then got a second straight three-and-out, this time with Zach Morris intercepting a Brayden Schager pass for UNM's first pick of the year. UNM got a key third down conversion when one of five N.M. Gatorade Players of the Year on the team, Zach Vigil, converted a third down with a nine-yard catch. That set up a 3-yard touchdown catch by Ryan Davis for a 14-0 lead.

Hawai'i answered with a Steven McBride touchdown, but UNM kept the offense moving, and early in the second quarter Jacory Croskey-Merritt scored the first of his two rushing touchdowns for a 21-7 lead. Hawai'i drove into UNM territory to the Lobo 29 with second-and-three, but after two incompletions, Gabriel Lopez sacks Schager and forced a fumble to end that drive.

That gave UNM a fourth drive of the half and it led to a fourth touchdown. UNM quickly moved downfield but faced a first-and-25 at the Hawai'i 33-yard line after a hands to the face penalty. That just allowed Andrew Henry to race 33-yard touchdown, his first as a Lobo. It was a part of his first 100-yard effort with UNM, going for 114 yards.

The Rainbow Warrior did score late in the half to make it 28-14, and UNM finished the half with one play with 24 seconds left, the only drive it didn't score on. But, UNM got the ball to open the second half and quickly erased any thoughts of the miserable second half a week ago against San Jose State.

The drive went 12 plays and looked like it might stall at the Hawai'i 30-yard line as UNM faced third-and-11, but Hopkins hit DJ Washington for 10 yards, and UNM converted the fourth-and-1 as Croskey-Merritt bullied over for three yards. On the next play Hopkins found Hixon again from 17 yards out, and that ended a lot of the drama.

UNM made it 42-14 in the fourth on Croskey-Merritt's second rushing touchdown, and only a late touchdown with six seconds on the clock messed up a pretty perfect half for UNM. Three times in the second half UNM got stops, with Jermarius Lewis figuring in on three straight takeaways. First, on a fourth-and-3 from the Lobo 14, Lewis sacked Schager and forced a fumble, which UNM recovered. On the next two drives, Lewis intercepted Schager in the end

24 – 34
Game 8: 10/28/2023
Reno, Nev.
Att: 13,083

RENO, Nev. --- New Mexico's defense hung tough, but UNM's offense suffered three first half interceptions, leading to 18 points as New Mexico lost 34-24 after falling behind 24-0 at the break. The Lobos scored 24 points in the second half and had a chance with under a minute to go but UNM missed a necessary 2-point conversion and then couldn't get the onside kick.

In the end, New Mexico trailed too much to make a comeback, although UNM put a strong third quarter that gave it some hope of the largest comeback in school history. The Lobos opened the half by getting a career-long 47-yard field goal by Luke Drzewiecki to get on the board, and after forcing a punt, Dylan Hopkins moved UNM 84 yards in just 45 seconds. First he hit Trace Bruckler for a 25-yard gain, and right after that he found an open Jeremiah Hixon for a 59-yard touchdown, and with just over eight minutes left in the third quarter, the Lobos were down 24-10.

It looked even better when an invalid fair catch signal and a false start forced the Wolf Pack to start at its own 10-yard line. However, Nevada was able to drive almost the length of the field before settling for a fourth Brandon Talton field goal to make it 27-10. On that drive, UNM lost Alec Marenco for the rest of the half and the first half against UNLV on a targeting call.

UNM then went three-and-out and punted the ball away, and Nevada got a big return in which a flag was thrown and then picked up. Nevada then benefited on a two pass interference penalties before finally punching the ball in from two yards out from Jacques Badolato-Birdsell to make it 34-10. UNM then scored the final 14 points on a 1-yard run by Devon Dampier and a 2-yard run by Jacory Croskey-Merritt, but UNM couldn't get any closer.

The defense allowed just one big play in the first half, a 51-yard pass from Brendan Lewis to Dalevon Campbell, but the defense stiffened and forced a 34-yard field goal from Brandon Talton. On UNM's next drive, the Lobos went for it on fourth-and-3 at the Nevada 40, but Hopkins was intercepted and Nevada's Jonathan Maldanado, and he returned it to the Lobo 34-yard line.

Again the defense held tough and allowed just a 47-yard field goal, but disaster struck on the next drive when Hopkins missed Caleb Medford and he was intercepted by Richard Toney, Jr. who returned it for a 43-yard touchdown and a 13-0 lead. After Nevada made it 16-0, a third Hopkins interception was returned 42 yards to the 24-yard line, and Nevada was able to punch it in and get a two-point conversion to make it 24-0.

In a first half where not much went UNM's way, Nevada even got a break with an extra timeout. With no timeouts, Nevada debated going for it on fourth down, but with one second on the play clock, it called timeout to punt, except they were out of timeouts. Despite that fact, Nevada was allowed to punt the ball without a penalty.

56 – 14
Game 9: 11/4/2023
Albuquerque, N.M.
Att: 12,353

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- UNM suffered through a host of mistakes in the opening half, including allowed three big plays on special teams as the visiting UNLV Rebels handed New Mexico its worst margin of defeat this season as UNM lost 56-14. The litany of mistakes in the game included three long punt returns, a fumbled snap on a punt and a fumble return inside the 10-yard line.

Overall, the Rebels (7-2, 4-1) took advantage of starting at the Lobo 32, 30, 21, 9 and 5-yard lines, scoring touchdowns on all of those possessions. UNLV won the turnover battle 2-0, and scored 14 points off those two turnovers.

The 42-point margin of defeat was UNM's worst in a conference game since October 27, 2018 when UNM lost 61-19 at Utah State. The 56 points was the most allowed in a home game by UNM since 60-49 loss to Boise State at University Stadium November 8, 2014. The last time UNM lost by 42 at home was October 22, 2011 as Air Force beat UNM 42-0.

Nothing seemingly went right early for UNM. After a quick first down on a pair of Jacory Croskey-Merritt runs, UNM was forced to punt, and Jacob DeJesus returned Aaron Rodriguez' 50-yard punt 59 yards to the Lobo 30. One play later, Ricky White III caught a 30-yard pass from Jayden Maiava and that made it 7-0. On its next drive UNM moved into UNLV territory, but an illegal block sent the drive back into UNM territory, and when UNM lined up to punt, Brendan Durkin's snap hit an upman and UNLV pounced on the football.

UNLV took four plays to score, getting a 5-yard run from Vincent Davis to make it 14-0. From there, UNM went on its first sustained drive of the game. Croskey-Merritt had an 11-yard run and Dylan Hopkins converted a third-and-6 on a 9-yard pass to Jeremiah Hixon.

Andrew Henry finished off the drive with a 3-yard touchdown run to make it 14-7. UNLV answered with 10-play, 75-yard drive capped by a second 5-yard Davis touchdown. UNM then went right down the field before disaster struck. Hopkins opened the drive with a 41-yard bomb into the bread-basket of Medford, but Jacory Croskey-Merritt was stripped of the ball at the UNLV 30 and the ball was returned to UNM's 5-yard line, where Donavyn Lester pounded it home.

UNLV added one more score before the break, and UNM got a chance to end the half with points but a career-long attempt of 52 yards by Luke Drzewiecki went just wide to the left.

In the second half, UNLV got two long touchdown passes by Maiava. The first was 43 yards to Dominic Gicinto and the second 58 yards to Ricky White III. UNLV made it 56-7 after another long punt return before UNM finally got back on the board when Devon Dampier led a 75-yard touchdown drive, throwing a 1-yard touchdown to Croskey-Merritt, somehow avoiding a sack.

14 – 42
Game 10: 11/11/2023
Boise, Idaho
Att: 34,076

BOISE, Ida. --- New Mexico started true freshman quarterback Devon Dampier and he led the offense well, but a late first half fumble was a crushing blow in UNM's attempt to keep up with Boise State's offense, and the Lobos eventually fell 42-14 in Boise, the seventh straight win by the Broncos in the series.

Dampier became the third true freshman to start a game in the Gonzales era, and he did so as Dylan Hopkins missed the game with a non-COVID related illness (strep throat). He is expected to be back for the Fresno State game.

Boise State took the opening kickoff and went down the field quickly, with Maddux Madsen hitting Austin Bolt for a 41-yard touchdown pass. Boise State then ran the swinging gate play for a two-point conversion and an 8-0 lead. UNM under Dampier went three-and-out but UNM held and forced a punt. That's when Dampier went to work. He moved UNM down the field, going 5-for-5 on the drive with Jacory Croskey-Merritt racing in from five yards out to put UNM down 8-7.

Boise State responded with a George Holani 10-yard run, but UNM came right back as Dampier against led UNM down the field. The big play was a 59-yard pass from Dampier to Caleb Medford. Dampier also made good use of tight end Trace Bruckler, who tied his career-high for catches with four during the drive.

Croskey-Merritt wiggled through a seam for a second 5-yard touchdown to make it 15-14, but the Broncos got that right back on a defensive mixup, allowing Prince Strachan to go uncovered for a 74-yard pitch-and-catch and a 22-14 lead. Boise State scored again when Taylen Green entered at quarterback and raced 19 yards for a touchdown.

Down 29-14, UNM had a golden opportunity to score right before the half and then get the second half kickoff, but Croskey-Merritt in fighting for extra yardage fumbled at the Bronco 6-yard line, and Boise State turned that into a half-ending field goal.

Down 32-14, UNM opened the half with a missed 46-yard field goal, and Boise State took the ball and scored on a second Holani touchdown, this time from a yard out to make it 39-14.

UNM again drove into Bronco territory, but that drive ended on a fourth down sack, and Boise State drove down the field after that for a 44-yard field goal from Jonah Dalmas for a 42-14 lead. The two teams traded punting the ball over the final 12 minutes of the fourth quarter.

Overall, UNM didn't have a real answer for the Bronco offense which scored on seven of its first eight drives in the contest. The Lobos gained 323 yards in the game, but allowed 484 to Boise State.

Game 11: 11/18/2023
Fresno, Calif.
Att: 38,569

FRESNO, Calif. --- New Mexico played a brilliant second half with career days from Jacory Croskey-Merritt and Caleb Medford, and UNM's defense allowed just four yards until the final drive of the second half as the Lobos won in Fresno for the first time since 1994 and only the second time ever, winning 25-17 to move to 4-7 on the season.

The Lobos completely dominated Fresno State after halftime, outscoring the Bulldogs 13-3. UNM outgained Fresno State 262-63 in the second half and allowed -8 yards rushing in the half. UNM's defense consistently came up big in the second half, including on a wild sequence that for most of the year seemed to somehow go wrong for the Lobos.

Dylan Hopkins was looking downfield for Jeremiah Hixon but the pass was picked off by Lavelle Bailey, and he returned it inside the Lobo 20, but Andrew Erickson worked his way back and forced a fumble which UNM's DJ Washington recovered at the Lobo 14. Hopkins again threw an interception at midfield, but the defense after a pass interference penalty held firm at the 36-yard line, forcing a punt.

UNM took that punt and drove 93 yards on 10 plays with every play on the ground. Jacory Croskey-Merritt had runs of seven and 24 yards to start it before Andrew Henry took over for runs of eight, 22 and four. A couple of penalties made it first-and-20, and Dylan Hopkins raced 12 yards around the end, but suffered an arm injury on the play. Devon Dampier came in and finished the drive off, running for eight yards and a first down before Croskey-Merritt scored his second touchdown of the day from 10 yards out to make it 18-14 after UNM missed a second two-point conversion.

Fresno State again couldn't move the ball much and punted, giving UNM another long field, starting at the three-yard line. That was no issue for UNM as Dampier led UNM on a 10-play drive, twice completing passes. The first was for 26 yards to a diving Jeremiah Hixon, and the second finished it off. He bobbled the snap, picked it up and heaved it long to the end zone for Caleb Medford, who leapt and snagged it for a 33-yard touchdown and a 100-yard game.

Fresno State turned to the injured Mikey Keene but it didn't really work as Fresno State punted on his first drive and then the Bulldogs could only muster a field goal after a 15-play drive to make it 25-17. Dimitri Johnson recovered the onside kick and Dampier rushed three times for 10 yards and a game clinching first down to give UNM the win.

New Mexico opened the scoring with a 38-yard Luke Drzewiecki field goal on its opening drive, but it felt like a Fresno State win as UNM had first and goal at the 5-yard line. Dylan Hopkins hit Trace Bruckler for a 4-yard touchdown but an offensive pass interference call negated that. UNM instead settled for Drzewiecki's field goal.

Fresno State responded on its opening drive with a Logan Fife 1-yard scoring run around the end for a 7-3 lead, a touchdown that capped a 77-yard drive. UNM's defense faced a little adversity after a 39-yard punt return set up the Bulldogs at the UNM 24-yard line, but the defense allowed just a yard, and Dylan Lynch saw his 42-yard field goal pull left.

The Bulldogs did make it 14-3 when Malik Sherrod capped off a seven-play, 78-yard run with a 6-yard score, but UNM responded to end the half.

Drzewiecki hit another 38-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 14-6, and then Jacory Croskey-Merritt went over from 50 yards out, helped by a ridiculous block by Andrew Erickson where he wiped out two would-be tacklers downfield with one hit, springing Croskey-Merritt for the final few yards. UNM elected to go for two and the tie, but Hopkins' pass was broken up.

Game 12: 11/24/2023
Albuquerque, N.M.
Att: 12,094

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- Quarterback Levi Williams scrambled 13 yards on a broken play after dropping the snap in the second overtime to give Utah State a wild 44-41 win over New Mexico that will put the Aggies into a bowl game, spoiling a spirited comeback attempt by UNM, which finished its season 4-8 overall and 2-6 in the Mountain West.

While the ending was disappointing, the Lobos finished with their most wins since the 2016 season when the Lobos went 9-4.

UNM trailed the entire game but was able to come back from down 10 in the final minutes. After Utah State scored on a 15-play, 90-yard drive that killed off 6:36 of the fourth quarter clock, the Lobos found themselves down 31-21 with 5:30 left in the game, but UNM went to work on its own 25-yard line. Dylan Hopkins, who finished just 12-for-31 passing, hit Jeremiah Hixon for 28 yards and then on third-and-eight found him again for 14 yards to the Aggie 31.

Jacory Croskey-Merritt, who became the first player in school history to rush for back-to-back 200-yard games, broke away for a 21-yard run to set up UNM with first-and-goal. After a pass interference penalty in the end zone, Devon Dampier rushed the ball in from two yards out to make it 31-28 with 3:24 left.

UNM kicked off and forced a punt and took over at its own 9-yard line with 2:09 left, and got the benefit of three pass interference penalties on Utah State over the course of four plays, sandwiched around an 11-yard catch by Ryan Davis, moving the ball from the 9 to the Utah State 36. Those flags were part of a crazy night with flags as Utah State was penalized 13 times for 183 yards and New Mexico 15 times for 155 yards.

Croskey-Merritt rushed 20 yards to the 16, but an offensive pass interference penalty made it third-and-20, but Hopkins found Davis for a first down. UNM spiked the ball to stop the clock with 17 seconds left, and two incompletions into the end zone left it at fourth down, and Luke Drzewiecki hit a 22-yard field goal to tie the game with four seconds left.

In the first overtime, Utah State scored first when Williams rushed in from six yards out. UNM got the ball and Croskey-Merritt rushed twice to get the ball to the four before Dampier entered and completed the drive. UNM originally lined up for the win, but after a timeout by Utah State, tied it with Drzewiecki, sending the game to a second OT.

There, UNM looked to get a 6-yard rushing TD by Dampier, but a quick replay review put the ball just inches short of the goal line much to the chagrin of everyone watching the replay on the video board, which looked inconclusive at best in the stadium. On third down, Croskey-Merritt lost a yard and UNM kicked a 19-yard field goal.

That led to Utah State's drive, which saw Rahsul Faison convert a 4th-and-one to keep its hopes alive, leading to Williams bobbling the snap and somehow avoiding a bunch of red jerseys for the win.

Kasey Carrier was a durable back who excelled in the option game, even playing as an option quarterback at times due to injury. He owns the top two single-game marks for yards from scrimmage with 343 against Air Force and 291 against UTEP. Amazingly, three of the top five marks all-time in single-game yardage came against UTEP.

Among the top-10 best seasons for yards from scrimmage, DonTrell Moore has four of them, one for each season he played. Those four years equaled 5,830 total yards from scrimmage, the best mark all-time at UNM a number that might never again be approached by a Lobo.

Bowl History

1939 SUN BOWL
Jan. 2, 1939 • El Paso, Texas
Utah 26, New Mexico 0

Playing in its first bowl game, the New Mexico Lobos were shut out by the Utah Utes 26-0 in the 4th Annual Sun Bowl at Kidd Field in El Paso.

(Note: The remainder of this story was written by Albuquerque Journal Sports Editor Paul Weeks and edited by UNM Media Relations.)

Like a kite that had flown too high, New Mexico's far-famed "dipsy-doo" football circus blew up and out of control before 13,000 disappointed Sun Bowl fans with a powerful tribe of Utah Indians (as they were called at the time) pouring on a humiliating 26-0 defeat.

The Utes matched their conservative style of the game as taught by Coach Ike Armstrong against the once-colorful attack of the Hilltoppers (as the Lobos were sometimes called) to claim gridiron superiority as Big Seven champions over the Lobos, co-champs of the Border league.

Never did New Mexico fall so miserably during the entire season as against the white-shirted tribe. Observers declared the team had conquered foes with power equal to the Utes, but there were no alibis for the Sun Bowl loss. It was on the same field that the Cherry and Silver met its first defeat of the season against Texas Mines (now UTEP).

Placed on equal ground before the fray, the two teams were as unevenly matched as a flyweight in the ring with a heavy. The Utes smashed across two touchdowns in the first quarter and followed it up with a 20-0 margin at the half. When New Mexico did not take advantage of breaks given them in the last periods, the Utes coasted in to another score, using two teams with equal results.

Though the bowl was not filled to capacity, more than 500 perched on the barren hills surrounding the field. The crowd stripped overcoats and concessionaires did a rush business in sun glasses because of the summery temperature. The tang of autumn football weather was entirely lacking.

1944 SUN BOWL
Jan. 1, 1944 • El Paso, Texas
Southwestern 7, New Mexico 0

(Note: The following story was written by A.V. Gullette from the Associated Press and edited by UNM Media Relations.)

A final quarter forward pass, starring tailback R.W. MacGruder of San Marcos, gave Southwestern of Texas a 7-0 victory over the University of New Mexico in the 9th Annual Sun Bowl.

The 37-yard toss from fullback R.L. Cooper clicked after the underdog New Mexico Lobos had beaten back the highly-touted ground game of Southwestern's Pirates through three quarters and eight minutes of the final period. The Pirates took the ball at the start of the fourth quarter on the 13. A pass, MacGruder to Cooper, made 27 and the two backs hit the line for a first down and MacGruder broke loose for 22 yards to the New Mexico 19.

Here New Mexico held and taking the pigskin, punted to the 46. Cooper passed to Hollon, Pirate end, for a first down and then to MacGruder for the winning tally.

The Lobos threatened only twice, in the second and third periods, but could not get beyond the Southwestern 16.

The game started under cloudy skies, but the sun broke through in the second half and playing conditions were nearly ideal.

The vaunted Southwestern defense held the Lobos to just four first downs and 48 yards total offense.

1946 SUN BOWL
Jan. 1, 1946 • El Paso, Texas
New Mexico 34, Denver 24

(Note: The following story was written by the Associated Press and Albuquerque Journal writer Clayton Byers. It was edited by UNM Media Relations.)

Don Rumley, a 19-year-old Navy reservist from Princeton, Ill., led New Mexico to a 34-24 victory over Denver University in the 11th Annual Sun Bowl. The 180-pound halfback passed for three touchdowns and rushed for another in the highest scoring game in the 11 years of this New Year's Day football event.

A crowd of 15,000 was on its feet throughout a 28-point fourth period in which New Mexico came from behind to capture its first bowl victory in three attempts. It was also the first victory for a Border Conference team in the El Paso game's history.

Denver, Big Seven champion, rolled up 10 points before New Mexico countered, and remained dangerous the last scoring its final touchdown with less than two minutes to play.

A 63-yard dash with an interception sent fullback Rudy Krall over with UNM's first score in the second period. Krall and Rumley engineered a 70-yard drive to set up the next score when Rumley scooted in from nine yards for a 13-10 Lobo lead.

Then, after a scoreless New Mexico third period, when Denver had regained the lead at 17-13, Rumley whipped out two aerials for touchdowns to sub end William Moseley and a third to Lavon McDonald.

One reason the Lobos were Sun Bowl champs is a story of gridiron heroism. It's about Fred Doar, UNM's star center, chief linebacker and kicker.

The 210-pound Navy trainee was on the bottom of a heap in the first play of the game. After that he played outstanding ball stopping Denver backs time after time. But teammates noticed their captain wasn't "talking it up" as usual. In fact, he was silent. X-rays after the game showed that Doar had broken his jaw in two places on the first play.

Blue skies and a blazing sun made it baseball weather for the game. Nearly 16,000 short-sleeved customers heard a minister intone a prayer dedicating this game to the nine members of the Lobos' 1939 Sun Bowl team who left the football field to die on the battle field during World War II.

Bowl History

1947 HARBOR BOWL
Jan. 1, 1947 -- San Diego, Calif.
New Mexico 13, Montana State 13

(Note: The following story was written by the Associated Press and was edited by UNM Media Relations.)

The University of New Mexico Lobos came from behind to earn a 13-13 tie with Montana State College in the first San Diego Harbor Bowl before a crowd of 7,000.

Both teams displayed a flashy brand of football which kept the fans on edge throughout.

New Mexico opened the scoring soon after the game started when Hubert Hackett connected on a 26-yard pass to Lou Cullen. Hackett's place kick was wide.

Montana State surged back shortly after the second period started sparked by Neil Brooks 48-yard dash from scrimmage to paydirt. The placekick was blocked but Gene Bourdet picked up the ball and ran over for the extra point (allowed at this time).

Bill Nelson set the stage for the next score when he took Bourdet's short pass at midfield and streaked 42 yards down the sideline to the Lobo 8. After three plays netted just one yard, Bourdet passed to Ken Card on fourth down putting the Bobcats in front. The kick was again blocked.

The Lobos tied the count early in the fourth quarter as Cullen and quarterback Bryan Brock combined to engineer a 75-yard drive on the ground and through the air. Brock scored from two yards out cutting over tackle. Hackett's kick was good to knot the score.

The Lobos had a chance to win the game in the final minutes. UNM drove to the Montana State 12, however, Brock was thrown for a 12-yard loss. Hackett eventually tried a field goal from 35 yards out but failed.

1961 AVIATION BOWL
Dec. 9, 1961 -- Dayton, Ohio
New Mexico 28, Western Michigan 12

(Note: The following story was written by Albuquerque Journal Sports Editor Dan Russell and was edited by UNM Media Relations.)

New Mexico struck for early touchdowns in both the first and third quarters to defeat Western Michigan, 28-12 in a chilled Aviation Bowl football game.

Freezing weather, including sleet and snow, nearly grounded the inaugural (and only) Aviation contest and limited the contest to approximately 4,000 fans even though advance sales had surpassed 5,000.

New Mexico drove for two touchdowns to open the game and to also open the second half. Then it capitalized on Western errors to add the two other touchdowns.

Two fumble recoveries in the first quarter helped set up the second touchdown of the game. Chuck Cummings intercepted a pass and streaked 43 yards for the final Lobo touchdown.

Quarterback Jim Cromartie plunged for three yards for New Mexico's first touchdown. Halfback Bobby Santiago picked up the second touchdown from 10 yards out, and Bobby Morgan also went over from the 10 for the third score.

Santiago, who suffered bruised ribs at the end of the first half and saw only limited action in the second half, was voted the top back of the game. Santiago gained a total of 86 yards and had a 60-yard touchdown run nullified by a clipping penalty. Cummings was voted the outstanding lineman.

"Our kids were really up," said UNM head coach Bill Weeks. "They came to play and they hit hard and executed well throughout. Santiago and Cummings were outstanding and I felt that Bobby Morgan had his best game of the year."

1997 INSIGHT.COM BOWL
Dec. 27, 1997 -- Tucson, Ariz.
Arizona 20, New Mexico 14

New Mexico would lose its first bowl game in 36 years, 20-14, on Arizona's home field. The Cats struck first, scoring on Kelvin Eafon's 15-yard touchdown run midway through the first quarter.

UNM took almost no time in the second stanza to knot the score. Graham Leigh ran 17 yards for a first down, then tossed a 15-yard TD pass to senior Milton Thomas. Colby Cason's PAT tied the score at 7-7 and completed the eight-play 69-yard scoring drive.

On Arizona's next possession, quarterback Brady Batten threw for 51 yards and Trung Canidate ran for 13 more, including a three-yard touchdown, which allowed the Wildcats to reclaim the lead, 13-7. UA missed the PAT.

The Lobos marched right back down the field, reeling off a 14-play, 45-yard drive. UNM could not cash in on its possession, however, as Colby Cason missed a 37-yard field goal.

The second half began in a disastrous fashion for the Lobo offense, as it went three-and-out on its first possession, then Leigh threw two consecutive interceptions. The resiliency of the UNM defense was the only thing preventing Arizona from increasing its lead, as the Lobos forced the Wildcats to punt on each of their first two series.

After Leigh's second interception of the quarter - his third of the game - UA capitalized. Canidate rushed for 30 yards, culminating with Eafon's 1-yard TD. The score upped Arizona's lead to 20-7 with 2:07 left in the third quarter.

Once again, UNM would not allow Arizona to keep its momentum. Leigh found Brian Messer for a 35-yard gain on the Lobos' first play from scrimmage. Two plays later, Leigh found Chris Shelton over the middle for an 18-yard gain to the Wildcat four. Leigh found paydirt on the next play, and with the five-play, 60-yard drive, New Mexico was right back in the game, trailing only 20-14.

New Mexico would get one more chance to stage a rally, taking over at the UA 48 with 5:31 remaining. On second-and-nine, Leigh dropped back and spotted Pascal Volz flashing across the middle downfield. His pass sailed just a bit, however, landing right in the arms of Wildcat DB Kelly Malveaux to seal it for the Cats.

Bowl History

2002 LAS VEGAS BOWL
Dec. 25, 2002 -- Las Vegas, Nev.
UCLA 27, New Mexico 13

The Lobo football team did more giving than receiving on Christmas Day, giving the UCLA Bruins three turnovers, which they turned into 17 points, as UCLA beat New Mexico 27-13 in the Sega Sports Las Vegas Bowl.

Following a DonTrell Moore fumble, UCLA got on the board first with a Nate Fikse 49-yard field goal. UNM then took a 6-3 lead when senior cornerback Desmar Black picked off UCLA QB Drew Olson's pass in the flat and returned it 55 yards for a touchdown at the 8:20 mark of the first quarter. Junior kicker Katie Hnida then made her first career appearance, but had her extra point blocked. Already the first and only woman to dress for an NCAA Division I bowl game, Hnida became the first woman to make an appearance in an NCAA Div. I-A football game.

"I made the decision to let Katie (Hnida) kick the first extra point," head coach Rocky Long said. "She has been a vital part of this team all year, and I felt that she deserved the opportunity to make a play."

The Lobos' had a chance to increase their lead in the second quarter after driving to the UCLA 17, but Kenny Byrd's 34-yard FG attempt sailed wide right, ending a UNM streak of 19 straight scores in the red zone. Fikse connected on his second field goal from 39 yards out to knot the game at 6-6 with 6:21 remaining in the second quarter. The kick was set up by a questionable pass interference penalty on the Lobos in the end zone.

The UCLA special teams rose to the occasion when Craig Bragg took a punt back 74 yards early in the third to give the Bruins a 13-6 lead. More bad luck followed in the fourth quarter as QB Casey Kelly's throw bounced off the back of TE Zach Cresap into the waiting arms of Jarrad Page. Page returned it 29 yards for a touchdown to give UCLA a 20-6 advantage.

On the next Lobo possession, WR Joe Manning caught a pass from Kelly only to be stripped of the ball. New Mexico's third turnover of the game set up a 1-yard leap by freshman Tyler Ebell, handing the Bruins a 27-6 lead. Kelly found Manning in the back of the end zone for a touchdown that brought the Lobos to within 27-13, but New Mexico would get no closer.

Kelly finished with a season-high 237 yards. Moore, hobbled by a sprained right ankle late in the second quarter, was limited to 17 yards on 14 carries. The defense certainly did its part, holding the Bruins to a season-low 167 yards. UCLA only had to travel 76 yards for its three offensive scores, two field goals and a touchdown.

2003 LAS VEGAS BOWL
Dec. 24, 2003 -- Las Vegas, Nev.
Oregon State 55, New Mexico 14

Steven Jackson tied a bowl game record with five touchdowns, and Oregon State's defense overwhelmed mistake-plagued New Mexico in a 55-14 win. Jackson ran for 149 yards on 28 carries. He caught a 34-yard pass from Derek Anderson five minutes into the game and added touchdown runs of 3, 11, 6, and 1 yards.

Former NFL star Barry Sanders scored five touchdowns for Oklahoma State against Wyoming in the 1988 Holiday Bowl, and Sheldon Canley of San Jose State had five against Central Michigan in the 1990 California Bowl.

The Lobos' scores came on a 27-yard pass from Casey Kelly to Hank Baskett in the first quarter and Kole McKamey's 17-yard toss to Dwight Counter in the fourth.

Unable to run or pass against OSU's defense, the Lobos had only one first down in the first half and 21 total yards through the first three quarters. The stats also included 6 yards rushing, seven first downs and 127 total yards.

New Mexico got its second first down on a 46-yard pass from wide receiver Baskett to Counter with just more than 10 minutes left. DonTrell Moore, who led the Mountain West Conference with 1,438 yards this season, finished with 12 yards on 10 carries. His second-quarter fumble at the New Mexico 15 led to Jackson's third TD and second in a span of 1:39.

New Mexico had the fourth-best rushing defense in the country this season, but after gaining just 11 yards in the first quarter, Jackson found plenty of holes and scoring chances.

Oregon State scored on its first two possessions, with Jackson catching a 34-yard screen pass from Anderson on third-and-19 and Kirk Yliniemi booting a 21-yard field goal.

New Mexico kept the Beavers' touchdown drive going with an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty for celebrating too long and too loudly after stopping Jackson for a 2-yard loss on third down at the OSU 40. The Lobos then sacked Anderson for a 10-yard loss, but the Lobos were offsides on the play.

Both teams entertained the Christmas Eve crowd of 25,437 with first-half trick plays that produced a touchdown for the Beavers and set up New Mexico's first score.

The Beavers scored on the final play of the first quarter on a 42-yard flea flicker. Anderson handed off to Jackson, who tossed it back to the quarterback for a pass to Mike Hass, who had beaten cornerback Brandon Payne.

New Mexico used a pass from wide receiver Michael Brunker to backup quarterback McKamey to set up the Kelly-to-Baskett score.

2004 EMERALD BOWL
Dec. 30, 2004 -- San Francisco
Navy 34, New Mexico 19

Aaron Polanco ran for three touchdowns and passed for another, and Navy capped the academy's best season in 99 years with a 34-19 win over New Mexico in the Emerald Bowl.

Polanco scored on runs of 14, 1 and 27 yards and completed a 61-yard touchdown pass to Corey Dryden, the longest of the season by Polanco and the first career score by Dryden. The Midshipmen's defense was impressive, too, despite the rain-soaked field at SBC Park.

The unit forced two first-half turnovers that led to TDs and staged a goal-line stand late in the third quarter. Then Navy kept the ball for the next 14 minutes, 26 seconds, and held New Mexico to only seven plays in the fourth quarter.

The Midshipmen (10-2) tied for the most wins in school history, last accomplished when Navy went 10-1-1 in 1905. It was a fitting end for the Mids, some of whom will head off to war in the coming year. Only two months ago, Navy's players dealt with the death of former teammate JP Blecksmith in a military operation in Fallujah, Iraq.

Polanco finished the season with 16 rushing touchdowns, a record by a quarterback this year. Temple's Walter Washington ran for 15. Polanco gained a Navy bowl record 133 yards on the ground for his fourth 100-yard rushing game and threw for 101 yards. He even caught a 17-yard pass from Frank Divis to set up his second TD - and his two receptions were the most by any Navy player.

New Mexico quarterback Kole McKamey had nearly as big a day after the Lobos (7-5) lost star tailback DonTrell Moore to a torn left ACL late in the first quarter.

McKamey threw for 207 yards and also rushed for 138, the first Lobos player to accomplish the feat since Graham Leigh in 1997. But McKamey threw two interceptions.

Moore, who has rushed for more than 1,000 yards in each of the past three seasons and came in averaging 108.3 yards per game, was carted off the field after catching a shovel pass and taking a hard hit from cornerback Vaughn Kelley that caused Moore to fumble with 3:52 left in the first quarter.

Linebacker Lane Jackson pounced on the ball for his first fumble recovery this year, and Polanco scored five plays later. Jackson also made an interception as time expired in the first half.

Navy built a 21-7 lead eight seconds into the second quarter on Polanco's 61-yard touchdown pass to Dryden.

The Lobos couldn't stop Navy's impressive triple-option offense. The Midshipmen snapped New Mexico's five-game winning streak and kept the Lobos from their first bowl victory in 43 years.

New Mexico lost in the Las Vegas Bowl the past two years and hasn't won a postseason game since beating Western Michigan 28-12 in the 1961 Aviation Bowl. The Lobos had won 11 straight games when they scored first.

2006 NEW MEXICO BOWL
Dec. 23, 2006 -- Albuquerque
San Jose State 20, New Mexico 12

San Jose State linebacker Matt Castelo saw New Mexico halfback Rodney Ferguson hit the hole near the goal line and prepared for a collision.

"I saw the running back get the ball and it was like in slow motion," Castelo said. "I got down low and I think he tried jumping over me. Tried to put the ball out for a touchdown."

Ferguson never made it to the end zone.

Castelo hit Ferguson and his helmet knocked the ball out and right into fellow linebacker Damaja Jones' hands. In a season where San Jose State's defense carried the Spartans to their first bowl game in 16 years, Castelo and Jones teamed up for what may have been the biggest stop of the year.

Adam Tafralis threw three touchdown passes and San Jose State beat New Mexico 20-12 on Saturday in the inaugural New Mexico Bowl, extending the Lobos' postseason drought to 45 years.

One big pass play by Tafralis and that costly fumble by Ferguson — both in the first half — set the tone for the Spartans' first bowl win outside of California.

Jones returned Ferguson's fumble 57 yards to the New Mexico 37. Although the Spartans didn't score on that drive, they had the momentum for good.

"I saw Matt set him (Ferguson) up," Jones said. "He tried to jump over Matt and Matt put his helmet right on the ball. I was trying to get over the top and the ball fell right in my hands."

For the Spartans (9-4), the win provided a final highlight in a season in which they won more games than they had in the three previous seasons.

Tafralis, who was 11-of-18 for 209 yards, threw scoring passes of 36 and 24 yards to James Jones and 76 yards to John Broussard. The pass to Broussard on the first play of the second quarter — in which New Mexico's defense totally blew the coverage — got the Spartans' offense rolling.

New Mexico's only touchdown came with 15 seconds left in the game on a 15-yard pass from Chris Nelson to Marcus Smith. The rest of the Lobos' scoring consisted of a 40-yard field goal by Kenny Byrd with 1:11 left in the second quarter and a safety when San Jose State punter Waylon Prather stepped out of the end zone with 1:08 left.

Byrd's field goal was his 25th straight from 40 yards or closer and the first made field goal by New Mexico in 10 bowl appearances.

San Jose State struck first after the teams combined for seven punts in the first quarter.

Tafralis found Broussard 20 yards behind the nearest Lobo. Broussard caught the pass at the 35 and easily scored.

New Mexico came right back with a drive that started with DeAndre Wright's kickoff return to the San Jose State 40. Eight plays later the Lobos had a first-and-goal at the 1. The Spartans' defense toughened and on third-and-goal from the 2, Ferguson fumbled.

The Spartans made it 13-0 on Tafralis' 36-yard pass to James Jones with 3:59 left in the first half. James Jones caught the ball near the sideline at the New Mexico 16 and slipped out of the grasp of Wright. Matt Strubeck missed the extra point.

The Lobos' offense had 377 total yards but was stagnant most of the day. Neither freshman quarterback Donovan Porterie, who started, nor Nelson, who played in the second half, could sustain drives. What plays did work often were erased by holding penalties and three second-half fumbles, including one by wide receiver Travis Brown at the San Jose State 1 with just over 3 minutes left.

Ferguson, who led the Mountain West Conference in rushing this season, had 102 yards on 22 carries.

James Jones and Broussard each had 106 yards receiving, Jones with six catches and Broussard with four.

2007 NEW MEXICO BOWL
Dec. 22, 2007 -- Albuquerque
New Mexico 23, Nevada 0

For coach Rocky Long, it was just the next game, another brick to continue building his program. For delighted New Mexico fans, it marked the end of a 46-year skid.

Paul Baker ran for 167 yards in his first start, and Donovan Porterie threw for career-high 354 yards and two touchdowns to help New Mexico beat Nevada 23-0 in the New Mexico Bowl. The Lobos (9-4) ended a 46-year span without a postseason victory and gave Long, the team's 10th-year coach, his first bowl win in five tries.

"It gets it off our back. We don't have to listen to it anymore," Long said. "But this program was good before we won today."

John Sullivan made field goals from 53, 39 and 37 yards, but give credit to New Mexico's defense, which delivered just the second shutout loss for Nevada under Hall of Fame coach Chris Ault.

The Wolf Pack (6-7) hadn't gone scoreless since losing 10-0 to Weber State on Sept. 27, 1980, a span of 329 games -- the longest current streak in college football and the second longest in history. It's the first time Nevada was shut out since moving to Division I-A in 1992.

"It's certainly a compliment to their defense," Ault said. "They played a great game. At the other end of the spectrum, we played as poorly on offense as we've played in a long time."

It was New Mexico's first bowl victory since beating Western Michigan 28-12 in the 1961 Aviation Bowl at Dayton, Ohio. The Lobos also notched a nine-win season for just the fourth time in school history.

"I'm very proud of our team," Long said. "I thought they were as focused as they've been all year long for any game."

Bowl History

New Mexico's defenders pestered redshirt freshman quarterback Colin Kaepernick all afternoon and made Nevada's "Pistol" offense look more like a pop-gun. The Wolf Pack averaged 36.2 points and 488.9 yards during the season. Nevada had logged 23 scoring plays that covered at least 25 yards -- second only to Oklahoma's 25 big-play TDs.

This time, Nevada had 210 total yards, with only 73 yards rushing. On a chilly day, with the temperature at kickoff 34 degrees, Kaepernick finished 13-of-31 for 137 yards. He had 10 carries for 40 yards rushing.

"Everybody was locked in," linebacker Brett Madsen said. "They have a really explosive offense. The quarterback can really run. We knew we had to contain the quarterback, and he didn't do much with his legs."

Madsen, despite not starting, was selected the defensive player of the game after recording two sacks, two tackles for lost yardage and four total tackles. But he agreed the award could have gone to any New Mexico defender.

Baker made the most of his chance. He moved into the starting lineup this week when Rodney Ferguson, New Mexico's leading rusher over the past two seasons, was ruled academically ineligible.

"My team believed in me and that was enough," Baker said. "I knew I could get it done."

The Wolf Pack blocked two field goals, Sullivan missed another 43-yard try and the Lobos failed to score after having first-and-goal at the 4 late in the third quarter. But Nevada just couldn't take advantage.

"We didn't do a good job with any consistency on the run game or the pass game," Ault said. "Colin Kaepernick didn't have a chance to get into type of rhythm. We just shot ourselves in the foot."

Despite the cool weather, Porterie had no trouble warming up. He threw a short slant pass on the third play from scrimmage to Marcus Smith, who raced to the end zone for a 66-yard scoring play. Later in the period, Brown got behind the Nevada defense and Porterie found him on a 39-yard TD pass.

2015 GILDAN NEW MEXICO BOWL
Dec. 19, 2015 -- Albuquerque
Arizona 45, New Mexico 37

It was nearly one of the greatest comebacks in school history. Nearly. In the end, the Lobos whittled an 18-point second half deficit down to five, and then with a chance to go for the tie threw an interception as the Arizona Wildcats defeated New Mexico 45-37 in a highly entertaining 10th Annual Gildan New Mexico Bowl in front of a crowd of 30,289.

Both teams combined for 1,025 yards of offense, with UNM gaining 333 on the ground and 189 in the air. Arizona was about the opposite with 174 on the ground and 329 via the air. Things looked bleak when Lamar Jordan threw an interception on a play starting at his own 1-yard line that led to a short touchdown run and a 42-24 Wildcat lead with 7:35 left in the third quarter. Jordan, who played well with 135 yards rushing and a 110 yards passing, got UNM back in it with his third rushing touchdown to make it 42-31.

Jason Sanders then hit a perfect surprise onside kick that Donnie Duncan recovered for New Mexico. Jordan got hurt on the drive, leaving the game for good, and Austin Apodaca came in and scored his first career rushing touchdown on an option keeper to make it 42-37. The Lobos went for two and missed the conversion.

UNM got the break it needed on a missed field goal, but UNM turned the ball over on downs. On second-and-3 at the Wildcat 18, DaVonte' Neal broke up a pass intended for Carlos Wiggins, and then Chris Davis fumbled an option pitch for a loss of seven yards. On fourth-and-13 in no-man's land, UNM went for it but Apodaca was sacked. That led to a field goal and a 45-37 lead for Arizona, with one last chance for UNM.

Taking over at the 26 with 1:29 and no timeouts, UNM picked up two first downs to get to the Arizona 36, but there was just 35 seconds left. Looking for a big hitter, Apodaca was pressured and his pass missed Dameon Gamblin and fell into the waiting arms of Cam Denson for a game ending interception.

UNM opened the scoring with a 37-yard Zack Rogers field goal, but Arizona used a couple of long passes to go up 14-3. Jordan had his first rushing touchdown of the day to cut into that lead, but Arizona answered on an Anu Solomon run.

UNM scored an unlikely touchdown on a 92-yard pass from Jordan to Delane Hart-Johnson, the second-longest in UNM history and the fourth-longest in bowl history. Hart-Johnson outraced his brother Will Parks to the pylon for the score.

However, Arizona scored just before, and just after halftime to boost the lead to 18, setting the stage for UNM's near-comeback.

2016 GILDAN NEW MEXICO BOWL
Dec. 17, 2016 -- Albuquerque
New Mexico 23, UTSA 20

It was nearly one of the greatest comebacks in school history. Nearly. In the end, the Lobos whittled an 18-point second half deficit down to five, and then with a chance to go for the tie threw an interception as the Arizona Wildcats defeated New Mexico 45-37 in a highly entertaining 10th Annual Gildan New Mexico Bowl in front of a crowd of 30,289.

Both teams combined for 1,025 yards of offense, with UNM gaining 333 on the ground and 189 in the air. Arizona was about the opposite with 174 on the ground and 329 via the air. Things looked bleak when Lamar Jordan threw an interception on a play starting at his own 1-yard line that led to a short touchdown run and a 42-24 Wildcat lead with 7:35 left in the third quarter. Jordan, who played well with 135 yards rushing and a 110 yards passing, got UNM back in it with his third rushing touchdown to make it 42-31.

Jason Sanders then hit a perfect surprise onside kick that Donnie Duncan recovered for New Mexico. Jordan got hurt on the drive, leaving the game for good, and Austin Apodaca came in and scored his first career rushing touchdown on an option keeper to make it 42-37. The Lobos went for two and missed the conversion.

UNM got the break it needed on a missed field goal, but UNM turned the ball over on downs. On second-and-3 at the Wildcat 18, DaVonte' Neal broke up a pass intended for Carlos Wiggins, and then Chris Davis fumbled an option pitch for a loss of seven yards. On fourth-and-13 in no-man's land,

Bowl History

UNM went for it but Apodaca was sacked. That led to a field goal and a 45-37 lead for Arizona, with one last chance for UNM.

Taking over at the 26 with 1:29 and no timeouts, UNM picked up two first downs to get to the Arizona 36, but there was just 35 seconds left. Looking for a gain hitter, Apodaca was pressured and his pass missed Dameon Gamblin and fell into the waiting arms of Cam Denson for a game ending interception.

UNM opened the scoring with a 37-yard Zack Rogers field goal, but Arizona used a couple of long passes to go up 14-3. Jordan had his first rushing touchdown of the day to cut into that lead, but Arizona answered on an Anu Solomon run.

UNM scored an unlikely touchdown on a 92-yard pass from Jordan to Delane Hart-Johnson, the second-longest in UNM history and the fourth-longest in bowl history. Hart-Johnson outraced his brother Will Parks to the pylon for the score.

However, Arizona scored just before, and just after half-time to boost the lead to 18, setting the stage for UNM's near-comeback.

UNM Administration

GARNETT S. STOKES PRESIDENT

Garnett S. Stokes was installed as the 23rd president of The University of New Mexico on May 12, 2018. She is the first woman to hold the post in the university's history.

A tireless advocate for a transformative student experience, an empowered faculty, and a campus culture of continuous improvement, Stokes brings to New Mexico's premiere R1 university more than four decades of experience and enthusiasm—as well as the unflagging energy needed to ensure The University of New Mexico thrives as a great place to work, live, and learn.

Shortly after taking office in 2018, Stokes journeyed on an unprecedented statewide "listening tour," covering 4,300 miles as she travelled through all 33 of New Mexico's diverse counties. Her meetings with thousands of New Mexicans—hearing their stories, and learning of their hopes and expectations—helped frame her immediate presidential priorities of promoting campus safety, supporting student veterans, and advancing the University's mission of world-class research. Stokes continues to hold regular office hours, routinely engaging with faculty, staff, and students for their input and commentary.

Throughout her distinguished career as an educator and leader, Stokes has been praised for her commitment to building outstanding leadership teams dedicated to student success. At UNM, she continues in this tradition, hiring diverse and talented leaders from across the nation to fill key roles at the university, including the Executive Vice President for Health Sciences, Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs, Senior Vice President for Finance and Administration, Vice President for Enrollment and Management, and Vice President for Equity and Inclusion.

Under Stokes's leadership, UNM has embarked on a journey of academic excellence, self-reflection, and collaborative problem-solving to identify effective ways to make the University of New Mexico a better and more engaging place to learn, work, and live. Since her arrival, UNM has received the Carnegie Community Engagement Classification, a designation that indicates institutional commitment to community engagement, and one of only 119 institutions to earn such a designation. UNM is also among the highest number of Fulbright awardees in the country.

As president, Stokes has worked tirelessly to seamlessly coordinate UNM's core missions of conducting top-tier research, compassionate and quality health care and health services, and providing access to a quality education for one of the most diverse student populations in the nation. She has made it a priority to promote and support collaborative efforts of the UNM community that benefit the entire State of New Mexico. In collaboration with the Board of Regents, she continues to strengthen relationships with key stakeholders to advance UNM's mission.

In February 2019, Stokes announced the UNM Grand Challenges, calling on researchers across disciplines to address problems of global, national and regional significance. After receiving proposals from research teams across UNM's campuses, Stokes chose to focus on three key areas as part of the newly-established UNM Grand Challenges: Sustainable Water Resources, Successful Aging, and Substance Use Disorders. She charged researchers with developing goals that enable multiple paths towards solutions and that are relevant across varied disciplines and communities. Since 2019, Grand Challenges teams have generated more than $20 million in funding, and continue to implement education and community outreach events and initiatives to improve lives around the State of New Mexico.

Prior to her arrival at UNM, Stokes served as interim chancellor, provost and executive vice chancellor for academic affairs at the University of Missouri, and was provost and executive vice president for academic affairs and interim president at Florida State University. She has also been a faculty member, chair of the department of psychology, and dean of the Franklin College of Arts and Sciences at the University of Georgia

A first-generation college graduate, Stokes earned her B.A. in psychology from Carson-Newman College in Jefferson City, Tennessee, and M.S. and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Georgia in industrial/organizational psychology. For nearly three decades, she served as a professor in the psychology department at the University of Georgia, including seven years as dean of UGA's Franklin College of Arts and Sciences.

Her husband, Dr. Jeff Younggren, is a forensic psychologist and a retired Colonel in the U.S. Army. They have two children and four grandchildren. President Stokes and Dr. Younggren reside on campus at University House.

DAVID WILLIAMS INTERIM VP/DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

David Williams joined the Lobo family on January of 2019, and he currently serves as Interim Vice President/Director of Athletics, a position he assumed in August of 2024. Previously, he served as the Deputy A.D. and Deputy A.D. for External Affairs.

With UNM, Williams oversees UNM's external departments including ticketing, marketing, communications and licensing. Williams also oversees several sports including football and men's basketball. He also handles many of the day-to-day duties of the athletic department.

Williams was instrumental in the 2020-21 academic year when Lobo Football played its entire season in Las Vegas, Nevada. He works closely in the Name, Image, and Likeness space, allowing UNM to become a leader among Group of 5 schools. He also oversaw UNM athletics' move into a new office space in the Student Support and Services Building and has tackled a variety of special projects for the department and university.

Williams is a veteran of over 30 years in collegiate athletics, and he brings a wide variety of experience, not only at all levels of collegiate athletics, but also in duties. His career has included 13 years as a Division II Athletic Director and 20 years in upper level administration as well as 10 years as a collegiate coach.

In his time with UNM, Williams has handled several transitions on the external side, including UNM's change to the Paciolan ticketing system, of which UNM earned "Newcomer Of The Year" honors. Williams also helped spearhead UNM's contract with new website provider WMT and a new contract and online store with apparel provider Zia Graphics.

With South Dakota, Williams worked his entire tenure with Athletic Director Dave Herbster, and he oversaw many facets of the Coyotes athletic department, with specific responsibilities of football and men's basketball program oversight as well as revenue generation.

Regarding USD's program successes, they were plentiful. The men's basketball team was one of eight teams to win a conference championship during his tenure in Vermillion, and the school were winners of the Women's All-Sport Trophy three times. The USD football team also was an FCS playoff qualifier in 2017. The men's and women's basketball teams win the 2016 Community Helping Hands Award from the School Administrators of the State of South Dakota. As a department, USD twice won the Summit League Sportsmanship Award (in 2016-17 and 2017-18), accumulating over 3,000 total hours of community service in 2016-17.

Williams was part of a fundraising team that included USD's President, A.D., Sr. Associate A.D. and foundation board to fund $72 million in athletic facility improvements, including 13 gifts over $1 million. Major facilities built include the Sanford Coyote Sports Center, the First Bank and Trust Soccer Complex and the Lillibridge Track Complex, all completed in 2016.

Additionally, USD had $26 million approved for improvements and renovations for the DakotaDome, with $14 million already raised. Williams has also served as the lead for several external contracts including external rights holders, ticketing and apparel. He also has served as the lead administrator on several coaching searches, including working with consulting firms for the hiring of USD's football and men's basketball coach. He also has served as the department's liaison with several on campus constituencies, including the Office of the President, Academic Affairs, Student Affairs, Finance and Budget, Facilities and Services, General Counsel, the USD Alumni Association and the USD Foundation.

Williams was involved with the Division II Athletic Directors Association's board for over six years, including three at the President. While the President, he co-authored "Division II Model Athletic Department", a document still used today by the NCAA as they assist colleges and universities seeking to transition from NAIA to NCAA Division II.

He came to USD after a 13-year run in Division II as the director of athletics at three highly regarded institutions. He got his start at Wisconsin-Parkside, serving for eight years from 2000-08 before moving onto Missouri Western for three years (2008-11) and then Kentucky Wesleyan for two (2011-13).

His time at Kentucky Wesleyan was busy over his two years, a period that saw the installation of the university's inaugural Hall of Fame Class, which was established under his tenure. The school also signed an apparel and footwear contract for all 17 Panther teams. During his time KWC became a charter member of the Great Midwest Athletic Conference.

He went to Kentucky Wesleyan after a successful three-year stint at Missouri Western. With MWSU, approximately $19 million in funding was secured to build a 118,000 square-foot indoor practice facility, new practice fields and 2,000-seat football stadium expansion. That led to Missouri Western becoming the new summer conditioning home of the NFL's Kansas City Chiefs, a move which in turn gave MWSU massive media attention and visitor traffic.

Additionally, Missouri Western twice joined with the city of St. Joseph to co-host the Division II Women's Basketball National Championship as well as the Division II Softball Championship.

At Missouri Western, the Griffs won a national award for "Night Out on the Griffs, a community engagement event. The Griffs won an MIAA award for surpassing the graduation rate of the general student body by the largest percentage, which was 31%.

The beginnings of Williams' administrative career came as Wisconsin-Parkside. He started as the assistant A.D. for marketing and operations before rising the athletic director in 2000. Over his eight years at the helm of the Ranger athletic program, Williams played a pivotal role in many facility improvements, including a $12 million expansion of UWP's Sports and Activities Center, an upgrade that included state-of-the-art scoreboards, and the region's first video board. Additional facility improvements upgraded both baseball and softball facilities with new dugouts, seating and scoreboard.

Williams has a coaching background, serving as both an assistant basketball coach at Wisconsin-Parkside as well as the head men's golf coach. He also was an assistant men's basketball coach at North Dakota State. It was at NDSU that he earned a master's in Education Administration in 1995. He earned a bachelor's in Education from Augustana (Ill.) in 1991.

He and his wife, Dr. Suzanne Williams, have three children; Cooper, Carter and Caden. William's wife Suzanne is an assistant professor of Kinesiology and Sport Management at USD.

MEDIA

The University of New Mexico football team gets extensive media coverage on a daily basis from the Albuquerque Journal, Daily Lobo, numerous radio outlets, including flagship station 770 KKOB-AM, and three network television stations covering the beat.

LOBOS ON THE RADIO

Every New Mexico game is broadcast over the 18-station Lobo Radio Network, spearheaded by flagship 770 KKOB-AM, at 50,000 watts one of the largest stations in America in terms of geographical penetration. KKOB is also simulcast on 94.5 FM, because it really is better on the FM. Fans outside of KKOB's listening audience can also receive the games over the Internet at www.GoLobos.com with UNM's free audio stream.

In addition to 770 KKOB, the Lobos can also be heard state-wide on the Lobo Radio Network. The Lobo Radio Network currently consists of 18 stations in New Mexico, including:

New Mexico Athletic Communications Wins First Super-11 Award in 2021

Three first-time winners, including The University of New Mexico, and eight previous ones comprise the 13th Annual Super 11 Awards, which the Football Writers Association of America rewards annually to the best performing sports information departments in the Football Bowl Subdivision. The awards announced this week are for the 2021 season.

In addition, the FWAA presented a Super 11 Coach of the Year Award to Boston College Coach Jeff Hafley who granted outstanding access to his program during the 2021 season. He is the fourth head coach to win this award, which began with the 2018 season.

The award for New Mexico is its first Super 11 Award, and it is the first time that the Lobo communications office has been honored for press operations in football since 1988 under former director Greg Remington.

"It's a big honor and recognition for the entire external staff at UNM," said Assistant A.D. for Communications Frank Mercogliano, who oversees football communications. "This reflects Coach Gonzales and how he runs his program. He runs a very open program with tremendous access, which makes our jobs on the external team easy."

The Lobo communications team for 2021 was Frank Mercogliano, Steve Kirkland, Allison Weiss and Alma Solis, and the external team also consisted of Stanley Frazier, Chase Christiansen, Drew Patterson, Jonathan Tibbetts and Corie Apodaca. Joe Thuente served as the Associate A.D. for Marketing and Communications and oversaw the entire external team.

This year's winners were deemed to have had excellent accessibility during the week of the game and after the game – with a program's players, coaches and assistant coaches.

FWAA members provided input during the season and made comments in an FWAA Awards survey after the 2021 season. In addition, SID press boxes were judged on how well they were run and maintained in terms of neutrality, pool reporters and noise level that could affect a media person's ability to do his or her job. In recent years, the availability of nearby press parking has become a plus.

This is the Mountain West

THIS IS THE MOUNTAIN WEST

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 26th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

The Mountain West has marked several achievements during its first 25 years, most notably becoming the first to establish a sports television network dedicated solely to an intercollegiate athletic conference (The Mtn.). The Mountain West also was the first to experiment with the coaches' challenge in the college football instant replay system and was the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference to participate in four BCS bowl games, winning three. In the inaugural year of the new College Football Playoff system, Boise State earned the automatic slot into a New Year's Six bowl game as the highest-ranked champion from the Group of Five 5 conferences. The Broncos defeated then 10th-ranked Arizona 38-30 in the VIZIO Fiesta Bowl. In 2011-12, the Mountain West was among the first conferences to implement a league-wide state-of-the-art basketball instant replay system.

Changes in the NCAA governance structure set the table for another Conference first, when two members of the MW Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) were included in the June 2014 meeting of the Mountain West Board of Directors. New Mexico track and field athlete Kendall Spencer, the national chair of the 2014-15 NCAA Division I Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, and Air Force Academy volleyball player Emma Dridge joined the BOD members in this historic meeting to advance the discussion on student-athlete involvement in the NCAA and MW governance structure. For the last 10 academic years, MW student-athletes have participated in monthly membership calls and have joined MW administrators in the annual Joint Council Spring Meetings in Arizona.

The Mountain West is well-represented within the NCAA governance structure, including individuals who were appointed to serve on committees tasked with managing the day-to-day business of Division I athletics. Kendall Spencer, the former chair of the DI Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and a UNM track & field athlete, was the first student-athlete in the history of the organization to serve on the Division I Board.

Additionally, the Mountain West was the only conference to have the same member institution with No. 1 overall picks in both the NFL and NBA drafts in the same year (Utah's Alex Smith and Andrew Bogut, respectively in 2005). With UNLV's Anthony Bennett claiming the No. 1 pick in the 2013 NBA Draft, the Mountain West is one of three conferences to have multiple No. 1 NBA draft selections since 2000. Also, with San Diego State's Stephen Strasburg earning the No. 1 pick in the 2009 MLB Draft, the Mountain West is one of three conferences to have the No. 1 selection in each of the NFL, NBA and MLB drafts since the MW was founded in 1999.

The Mountain West is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders five MW institutions (Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, New Mexico and Utah State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet – the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert cities of Las Vegas and Reno, home to UNLV and Nevada, respectively, while Fresno State, San Diego State and San José State add a West Coast influence with their locations in Central, Southern and Northern California. The inclusion of the Hawai'i football program extends the Mountain West footprint to the beautiful islands in the Pacific Ocean, while the addition of the women's soccer program at Colorado College gives the MW an additional presence in the Rocky Mountains. With the addition of Washington State as an affiliate member in women's swimming and baseball, the Mountain West footprint stretches into the Pacific Northwest.

HISTORY

The Mountain West was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The eight presidents then hired the league's first commissioner, Craig Thompson, on Oct. 15, 1998. The split from a former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Three of the MW's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (New Mexico, Wyoming and Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV and TCU entered the fold in 1996 and the Rebels continued as one of the original eight institutions that formed the MW in 1999. TCU re-joined the group with its first year of competition in the Mountain West in 2005-06. With conference realignment sweeping the nation in recent years, the MW has been proactive in addressing membership changes. Boise State University joined the Mountain West in 2011-12, followed by Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012. Also on July 1, 2012, the University of Hawai'i became a football-only member of the Conference. On July 1, 2013, the Mountain West further expanded when San José State University and Utah State University joined the Conference, bringing to 11 the number of full-time member institutions and 12 football-playing members. On July 1, 2014, the Colorado College women's soccer program became the first non-football affiliate member of the Mountain West, expanding that sport to 12 Conference participants. On July 1, 2024, Washington State University joined the Mountain West for women's swimming and baseball.

When the Mountain West officially began operations on July 1, 1999, the new league had in place a seven-year contract with ESPN, giving the broadcast entity exclusive national television rights to MW football and men's basketball, and three-year agreements to send the league's football champion to the Liberty Bowl and a second team to the Las Vegas Bowl. Then Commissioner Thompson also arranged a third bowl tie-in each of the first three seasons (1999 Motor City, 2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans) before securing a four-year deal with the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco in 2002.

Entering the 2024 season, the MW has eight (8) postseason opportunities, including a spot in the revamped College Football Playoff (five [5] highest-ranked conference champions, plus the next seven [7] highest-ranked at-large teams), six (6) primary bowl positions with the Los Angeles Bowl, Arizona Bowl, Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, New Mexico Bowl, Hawai'i Bowl and an ESPN Events-operated bowl, likely to be held in the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex - and one (1) secondary position.

An innovator in the postseason bowl structure, the MW engineered many "firsts," as league teams have participated in seven inaugural bowl games (2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans, 2002 San Francisco (Emerald), 2005 Poinsettia, 2006 New Mexico, 2015 Arizona, 2015 Cure), as well as placing the first non-automatic-qualifying FBS team into a BCS bowl game with Utah's appearance in the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and into the College Football Playoff (CFP) with Boise State's selection to the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

On Dec. 31, 2022, Thompson retired after nearly 24 years at the helm of the MW, and Gloria Nevarez was named the league's second Commissioner, beginning her post on Jan. 1, 2023.

ACADEMIC CONSORTIUM

From the outset, Mountain West member institutions have been committed to creating strong academic relationships, as well as athletic competition. To that end, the chief academic officers of each institution have explored academic exchange programs, library crossovers and shared research. In addition, the faculty athletics representatives routinely provide educational assistance and test-taking services for student-athletes visiting from fellow member institutions for competition.

OPPORTUNITY

The Mountain West provides a first-class athletic and academic experience for more than 5,000 student-athletes each year. Over the past 25 years, 44 Mountain West student-athletes have earned NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships, and since the league's inception in 1999, an additional 50 student-athletes have been named MW Scholar-Athlete of the Year and awarded league-sponsored postgraduate scholarships. Five Mountain West student-athletes have earned distinction as Rhodes Scholars (Jessica Mellinger, Wyoming, and Delavane Diaz, Brittany Morreale, Rebecca Esselstein and Madelyn Letendre, Air Force).

Conference student-athletes are also given a voice regarding pertinent issues within the MW and NCAA governance structure through representation on the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC). The Mountain West SAAC is comprised of 24 members (22 student-athlete representatives, the MW representative to the Division I National SAAC and one faculty athletics representative). The committee reviews and reacts to legislation and to other topics referred by the Conference constituent groups or committees related to the student-athlete experience. Since the inclusion of two SAAC members at the June 2014 meeting of the MW Board of Directors, the Conference maintains its commitment to the participation of student-athletes in its governance structure, which is consistent with the Mountain West's focus on enhancing the student-athlete experience.

Mountain West Quick Facts

ACHIEVEMENT

The MW has produced 1,769 All-America selections among its 19 sponsored sports (men's swimming was discontinued as a Conference sport following the 2010-11 season and women's gymnastics was added in 2023-24) in the last 25 years, including a league-record 103 All-America honorees in 2016-17. A total of 249 MW student-athletes have also earned Academic All-America accolades in that span. The Mountain West has sent at least 25 teams to NCAA postseason events in each of the past 25 years, capturing five team national championships in women's cross country and producing 54 individual national champions in the sports of men's golf, men's cross country, women's diving, and men's and women's indoor track & field and outdoor track & field.

Mountain West members have earned 128 bowl bids under the league umbrella, including four appearances in BCS games and one CFP game. The MW has earned 101 postseason bids in men's basketball, with eight Sweet 16 appearances and one runner-up finish (San Diego State; 2022-23), as well as three NIT Final Four berths. MW women's basketball has tallied 87 postseason slots, including 41 NCAA bids, five Sweet 16 appearances and one Elite Eight berth since 2000. Wyoming won the MW's first WNIT championship in 2007 with a win over Wisconsin. In women's volleyball, the MW has had 50 NCAA bids with nine Sweet 16 berths and one Elite Eight appearance. Women's soccer has earned 38 NCAA bids since 1999, with two Sweet 16 berths and one Elite Eight appearance. Mountain West men's golf has sent at least three teams to the NCAA Men's Golf Regionals in each of the 24 years the postseason was held (canceled in 2020 due to COVID-19 pandemic), while women's golf has had at least three teams participate in NCAA Regionals 17 of the last 24 years.

SPORTSMANSHIP

The Mountain West has been a driving force for sportsmanship within intercollegiate athletics. As part of its continuing growth and development, the MW implemented an extensive Sportsmanship Initiative, endorsed by both the MW Joint Council and MW Board of Directors. The program is made up of several elements, which are both practical and philosophical in nature. While the MW has significant penalties in place to deal with violations, the Sportsmanship Initiative is primarily promotional and educational in nature. The goal is to develop an environment that fosters appropriate behavior from all Conference constituencies.
